

In this article, we would like to look at Point one – MacArthur supporting the “coalition” that pushed Trump into pretending to be a “Christian” candidate for President. Here is MacArthur’s multi-step progression toward admitting that he endorses Trump via his “coalition”. MacArthur knew he would be doing this all along during the two or more years of political drama that always accompanies elections. But he had to make it a slow process, otherwise we would all be startled by his absurd belief that this was God’s acceptable will to corner “Christians” into voting for Pope Francis’ choice for an American president Donald Trump. And why shouldn’t we be startled? Trump is absurd to pretend to be a Christian. And the people who claim to have led him to Christ, specifically Paula White and Billy Graham are absurd in their beliefs and lifestyle and immoral giving of approval to evil-doers. And the “evangelical pastors” and “ministry” leaders who are playing along know and obey that hidden-hand of free-mason/Jesuit “higher power” that they always follow regardless of what abyss it is leading them into. And they all just hope we will follow along out of fear of the repercussions of not submitting, because they believe they are establishing the kingdom of God on earth as we are told to pray for and they are unconcerned if it turns out that they are actually just building the anti-christ’s grid-lock of totalitarian control. So here is MacArthur’s act of pretending to be cornered with us into voting for Trump, knowing and hoping that many Christians would also fall into this trap. Note that every organization, corporation, religious leader including “pastors” named in this paper are doing evil and helping for more evil than is readily visible. If you see a name you like, please do some research and quit giving them your blessing.

Here again are the links to our researched and written profiles on each of Trump’s “coalition” for which Donald Trump is the “public relations agent” as MacArthur calls him.

March 11, 2016 - MacArthur and Mohler

During a Q&A Panel discussion at MacArthur’s Shepherd’s Conference, John MacArthur and Al Mohler discuss blaming Mark Driscoll, backslidden “conservatives”, un-indoctrinated “evangelicals”, un-“church”ed Christians, boastful overconfidence of the “evangelical mega-complex”, narrowed religious categories in media reporting, and basically a dying “Christian Church” in America for being stuck with Donald Trump, while making sure to put on their best doom-and-gloom-for-Christianity and God-is-humbling-us acts. MacArthur promotes the Moral Majority concept as being back when moral meant something.

> MacArthur/Mohler Q & A - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TpogWiu8snQ>

The founders of the "Moral Majority" were Jerry Falwell Sr - who partners with pornographers make gospel preaching and pro-life education require extremes of “free-speech”, Paul Weyrich – Roman Catholic/Greek Catholic co-founder of The Heritage Foundation with beer-mogul Joseph Coors and member of the free-mason John Birch Society, Tim Lahaye the founder of the secret society Council for National Policy (CNP) based on the Council on Foreign Relations, and Pat Robertson whose father Absalom helped Abraham Vereide build the satanic family/“Fellowship” (“C-Street gang”) in Washington, D.C. Please notice that John MacArthur started this conversation of being stuck with Donald Trump before Marco Rubio, Ted Cruz, and John Kasich had dropped out of the race. This was to begin to groom the conservative Christian audience that follows MacArthur to think that we would be doomed to have to support Trump, since if he won the nomination, it was pretty obvious that Hillary would be the other option. Some people will assume that this was a randomly selected question. MacArthur set up this question so he could answer it publicly to direct people the way he wanted them to go (toward Trump’s coalition). Many people don't realize who MacArthur is and how he is part of the religious team who use manipulation tactics to tell people what agenda they are supposed to obey. Devious leaders carefully pick the questions and often plant questions that they want to answer to further their agendas - and such is the case here too.

July 3, 2016 - MacArthur at the WCS summit

Then here is John MacArthur speaking Sunday morning at the Western Conservative Summit hosted by Colorado Christian University and the Centennial Institute and sponsored by The Heritage Foundation and July 1-3, 2016. The speakers at this three day event include Donald Trump, Sarah Palin (fake tea-party leader and Rockefeller-big-oil partner), John MacArthur, Phil Robertson (Duck Dynasty), and Eric Metaxas (a close friend of actor Kirk Cameron who attended Grace Community for a while and has partnered with MacArthur on several media releases). So that you understand how influential this crowd is among the conservative “churches”, the 2017 Summit featured James Dobson, Jay Sekulow of the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLI), and John Bolton (bully ambassador against Israel during George W.’s administration), Michael Farris (Jesuit founder of Home School Legal Defense Association and Patrick Henry College and General Counsel to James Dobson’s Alliance Defending Freedom), Frank Gaffney (founder of Center for Security Policy to perpetuate fears about America becoming a Muslim caliphate in partnership with Richard Perle of the Bilderberg Group), Jim DeMint (former U.S. Senator and former president of The Heritage Foundation), and the 2018 Summit featured Kirk Cameron (actor and representative of Billy Graham’s Hollywood network, known for his role in “Left Behind” movie and Way of the Master evangelism show with Ray Comfort), Jeff Sessions (former U.S. Senator and current Attorney General who seems to be playing Donald Trump’s disguise-of-the-truth games and has let out a lot of ethnic discrimination and class warfare type statements), Don Sweeting (son of George Sweeting former president of Moody Bible Institute 1971-1987), Frank Gaffney, Michael Farris, and John Stonestreet (President of Chuck Colson Center who picked up the organization with Eric Metaxas’ help after the passing of Chuck Colson).

MacArthur spoke Sunday so as to act as a “pastor” to the crowd of American Christian “conservatives” and perhaps so as to not have to entangle with corrupt politicians face-to-face. By May 26, 2016, Donald Trump was the Republican nominee, so there is no mistaking that MacArthur knew that by speaking here, he was agreeing to support this “coalition” behind Trump who he knew would be selected in the primaries all along.

So MacArthur craftily structures his arguments in this speech and sounds like he is staying undecided about whether to vote for Trump. If MacArthur were a pastor of the followers of our Lord Jesus Christ, this “sermon” should have been about supporting neither of them. In fact, along the way, MacArthur does not even argue that Donald Trump is less evil, but rather that we have a national obligation to God to vote for Trump (who remains unnamed) because he at least believes in the one true God. This is literally MacArthur’s argument! What MacArthur knows, but many Christians don’t know is that Trump and Hillary believe in the same “god” as shown by their mutual respect and appreciation for their fellow Jesuits. If you are uncertain about that, have a look at the link we gave above showing Donald Trump’s relationships with the Jesuits at a time when the current pope is openly Jesuit also. In it, we provide the link for the Catholic openly-Jesuit banquet – Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation Dinner – during which Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump stand side-by-side with the Jesuit Archbishop of New York who “prays” about which one should be president while he bumps Trump indicating that he is their chosen “public relations agent”. Hillary says that while she is not a Jesuit, she deeply respects and partners with all of the Jesuits. Trump makes no mention of not being a Jesuit, because he is a Jesuit. That Jesuit dinner was established in 1945 at Waldorf Astoria Hotel by Archbishop of New York Cardinal Francis Spellman who during the 1930’s used his radio show to keep America out of investigating the cause of World War 2 for as long as he possibly could, because he knew that the Catholic imperial networks built all sides of the conflict. Also look up John J. Trump (Donald’s uncle) and his involvement with the FBI and Nikolai Tesla’s death and belongings. And a very simple look at Clinton’s and Trump’s life shows that money and a “higher power” of Catholic and Freemason hidden-hand network is their real “god”. They believe in themselves – secular godless humanism which is what the Pope represents to the highest order. To accomplish this twist of labels to suggest that Trump believes in God, MacArthur uses “teachings” from Anglican Bishop J. C. Ryle in favor of his British combined church-state government and against those who would separate them as a fear tactic to convince these conservatives that there is no choice other than the candidate claiming to believe in the one true God and who will keep the “church” and government working together. J. C. Ryle was appointed to Bishop in that new post in Liverpool by Prime Ministry Benjamin Disraeli. Here is a link to that sermon, followed by a link to our transcript of that sermon

November 6, 2016 (two days before the election)

Next are various links (and GCC's Vimeo link to the sermon) about John MacArthur's sermon November 6 th, 2016, two days before the election. You can see for yourself that MacArthur was telling us to vote for Trump's coalition very bluntly by this point. Yet to accomplish this, he so carefully and delicately narrows the possibilities until the only remaining conclusion is that this is God's choice for us, rather than not voting which should have been the real conclusion. You will want to listen to the sermon or see clips of the sermon. MacArthur considers this the right choice for slowing down the sinking of the Titanic (his view of America), so we have a little more time to point toward the rescue boats which is the gospel for eternal salvation. MacArthur builds this fear even stronger by repeating the lesson he taught at the Western Conservative Summit – his suggestion that America has crashed through almost all three cycles of a "national" version of Romans 1 - a sexual revolution, then a homo-sexual revolution, and now reprobate minds throughout our country which he says is the final phase before the collapse of a nation. Somehow John MacArthur has convinced himself that sexual behavior is the one influence that can make or break a nation. That is not even slightly true from God's Word about the nature of humans or even about the historic nation of Israel to which MacArthur compares us.

The other thing MacArthur does is to only look at abortion, transgender subject, gay marriage, and military protection as his evidence that Republicans protect good and correct evil. And he intentionally avoids the fact that the Republican leaders do all of the exact same assaults against good that the Democrats do but on different policies than do the Democrats. The two parties just have a different structure of rhetoric and focal points. And they alternate back and forth, evil left and evil right battling together to erode what is right as a matched pair of giants who are laying siege against the truth from opposite sides through this corporate take-over structure that is being built in front of and blocking the rightful legal (in American legal/judicial structure) and God-honored Constitutional republic government. Thankfully, the truth cannot be defeated or silenced – by God's grace and because of His building Jesus' Church. Our heavenly Father will help us deny the authority of both cruel partners of the system and go back to the government that is established by the laws of this country through the constitution. The devil does not have permission from God to come to you and defile you or destroy you. If you fall, it is because you said yes and allow it. What MacArthur is really trying to force us to do is to get us to discredit ourselves along-side the immorality, vulgarity, military bullying, deceptive support of murdering children, intrusion of unjust stalking and bullying, threats and hatred, pride and partnering with one-world government and one-world religion of the Republican party who acts in the name of "God" and "Morality", rather than the immorality, vulgarity, deceptive military psy-ops, open support of murdering children, deceptive intrusion of unjust stalking and bullying, threats and hatred, pride and partnering with one-world government and one-world religion of the Democratic party. How is MacArthur pretending that only Democrats punish good and encourage evil and not Republicans also? How is MacArthur pretending that only Democrats oppose the one true God and His authority over men and women and not the Republicans also? MacArthur knows he is a liar and deceiver.

John MacArthur Says He's Not Voting for Trump, He's Voting for a Worldview

By Joshua Pease

"... MacArthur also said he believes he's commanded to vote this way by 1 Timothy 2's instructions to "make a peaceful contribution to life and culture," presumably referring to verse 2 which tells Christians to pray for kings and those in authority..."

Pastor John MacArthur: 'Which Party will uphold God's design for government?'

Influential pastor-theologian applies Romans 13 to thinking about U.S. political parties

By W. Scott Lamb - - Monday, November 7, 2016

"After laying out a case that politics can be likened to rearranging the deck chairs on the Titanic, influential pastor-theologian John MacArthur then made a case that voting does matter—because some political parties will sink the ship faster.

Watch the entire video below (14 minutes), but here's a quote from about the 4-minute mark:

But we also understand this. That God has designed human government. And Romans 13 tells us what His design is. God has designed human government and given human government ultimate authority for two purposes. To protect those who do good and punish those who do evil. That is the role of government. Anything beyond that is invented by men. ...so you can have order and civilization in a culture.

So you really only have one question to ask. You're not voting for persons. You're voting for coalitions. The person at the head of it, that is running for the office of President, is the public relations agent for the coalition behind it..."

Now, let's look at the "coalition" around the time of July 2016 that John MacArthur considers himself to be part of that is/was promoting Trump.

First here are Donald Trump's Faith Advisors around July 2016 (it should be noted that some have since removed themselves from Trump's advisory council so as to not be completely seen as keeping company with evil-doers):

James Dobson,
 Jerry Falwell Jr.,
 Richard Land,
 Paula White,
 Kenneth and Gloria Copeland,
 Mark Burns,
 James Robison,
 Ronnie Floyd,
 Robert Jeffress,
 David Jeremiah,
 Jack Graham,
 James MacDonald,
 Jay Strack,
 Michele Bachmann,
 Ralph Reed,
 A. R. Bernard,
 Robert Morris,
 Jentezen Franklin,
 Harry Jackson,

[political] "Coach" Tom Mullins,
 Johnnie Moore,
 Sealy Yates,
 Tom Winters,
 Tim Clinton,
 and Tony Suarez

Before you assume that you know who these people are, take a look at and double check our facts in these profiles, so you understand how this network and "coalition" works. The document is long, but if we all can grasp the structure of this network, we can (and need to) all work together to remove those who should not be "pastors" and to firmly and loudly separate ourselves from those who should not be pretending to represent us in U.S. government – because they all already know secretly to themselves that they do not represent our faith in Jesus.

And here is the list of other endorsements for Donald Trump's campaign. How did all of these get on the same team?

Kirk Cameron, Joseph Coors, Larry Flint, Jerry Falwell Jr, John Maxwell, Pope Francis, Thomas Schirrmacher, Jay Strack, Michelle Bachmann, Joel Osteen, Paula White, Joel Rosenberg, David Duke - Grand Wizard of the KKK, Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), North Korean State Media, Ronnie Floyd, Billy Graham, Robert Jeffress, General Jerry Boykin, James Dobson, Newt Gingrich, Alex Jones, Brigitte Gabriel, Phil Robertson, Pat Robertson, Kenneth Copeland, and James Robison? And why are they joining partnership with American Enterprise Institute, World Evangelical Alliance, Southern Baptist Convention, Bilderberg Group, Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability, The Heritage Foundation, the National Association of Evangelicals, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), the Council for National Policy (CNP), and finally: the satanic Theosophical Society that built Hitler? What do these all have in common? They have all joined and combined their support behind Jesuit Donald Trump and his Jesuit-run coalition.
