

Church Growth and Renewal

RTS Doctor of Ministry Core - 2DM804

Joel Hunter & Ed Stetzer

July 14-18, 2008

Course Description:

- Explore church growth and renewal dynamics from a biblical, theological and cultural perspective.
- Study different dimensions of spiritual and numerical growth.
- Examine ways to extend any church structure into a more missional, field-based organization.
- Focus on the changing role of the leader in church growth—as you remember the unchangeable basics of leadership.
- Learn how to develop missional churches that engage today’s culture with transformational gospel ministries.
- Experience interactive, collaborative learning through an onsite visit to *Northland-A Church Distributed

*The course will involve attendance at the July 14, Monday evening worship service, 7 PM at Northland – A Church Distributed in Longwood, Florida. <http://www.northlandchurch.net/>

Course Instructors: Joel Hunter & Ed Stetzer

Joel Hunter is the senior pastor of Northland, A Church Distributed in Longwood (Orlando) Florida. Started by 11 people in 1972, Northland was recently named one of “America’s 50 Most Influential Churches”. Since June 1985, Dr. Hunter has served as senior pastor. During his tenure, the church has grown from 200 to a congregation of 12,000. As an internationally known spokesperson for issues such as Life, Creation Care, Justice, Poverty, Marriage and the Family, Dr. Hunter has been featured in Newsweek and The New York Times, as well as on TV programs such as The Early Show, Nightline and Anderson Cooper 360. His new books include A New Kind of Conservative and Church Distributed. Joel will be the instructor Monday morning until Wednesday noon.

Ed Stetzer has planted churches in New York, Pennsylvania, and Georgia. He has trained pastors and church planters on five continents, holds two masters degrees and two doctorates, and has written dozens of articles and books. He served for three years as seminary professor at the Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky and has taught at fifteen other seminaries. He is currently the Director of Lifeway Research and Lifeway's Missiologist in Residence. The books Ed has written (or co-authored) include: Planting New Churches in a Postmodern Age, Perimeters of Light: Biblical Boundaries for the Emerging Church, Strategic Outreach, Breaking the Missional Code, Planting Missional Churches, Comeback Churches and 11 Innovations in the Local Church. Ed will be the instructor Wednesday noon until Friday noon.

Course Assignments (Beyond Class Attendance & Participation)

➤ Reading Assignment

Students are required to read 2000 pages of new reading (see lists below) and write a one-page book report (see form attached) giving evidence of critical analysis of each book or article more than 50 pages in length. The book reports are due on the first day of class.

➤ Integration Paper

Students are required to write two 10-15 page integration papers (1 paper for Dr. Hunter and 1 paper for Dr. Stetzer) giving evidence of: 1) integration of course readings, lectures and discussions and 2) practical ways in which they plan to improve their ministries in light of this course. All papers are due (at the RTS D.Min. office) October 31, 2008.
