"... LECRAE claims to be a Christian, and is promoted as such by John MacArthur, John Piper and other change agents who preach the Bible to the older generation of Christians but behind the scenes they are stealthily leading their children and grandchildren into the occult traditions. Lecrae passes for a Christian because he is endorsed by popular preachers and he received the 2013 Grammy award for Best Gospel Album. In real life he is a spiritual cross-dresser alternating between performances at Christian concerts and the pornographic MTV.

The Compromise of Lecrae and John MacArthur

"'Holy' hip-hop artist Lecrae has won a Grammy award. But he wouldn't want to be called a holy hip-hop artist, or even a Gospel artist. Tell that to those who promote him, like the Gospel Coalition, John MacArthur and Grace-to-You, or John Piper and his Desiring God ministries.

"Why wouldn't he want to identify with Christianity in all this limelight? No need to wonder. Lecrae tells us:

'I don't try to do Gospel music, I'm not trying to be a Gospel rapper, I'm a hip-hop artist....I just wanna be honest.

'Yeah, it's a wonderful experience, you know, for me, technically, I'm a hip-hop artist. And so, it's amazing to even be nominated in the Gospel category because I'm a hip-hop artist but I can walk in both worlds and so to be able to walk in that world and to ignite and inspire 60,000 young people obviously is a wonderful thing, and then to turn around and go do, you know, MTV the next day is crazy.'...

"Lecrae is distancing himself because, according to him, he can 'walk in both worlds' i.e., holy hip-hop (so-called) as well as secular (as if there's a difference).

"The Bible talks about that. It's called compromise; being a friend to the world.

"You know what is even more disturbing? That pretty much every blogger at The Gospel Coalition, Desiring God and Grace-to-You websites, as well as men like Paul Washer and Tom Ascol who have given their stamp of approval and are actively promoting 'holy' hip-hop artists like Lecrae and others. Think about it. By promoting Lecrae and misguided young men like him, the Gospel Coalition, John MacArthur and John Piper are promoting his thinking – compromise; walking in both worlds...

'You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. – James 4:4' ..."
