

Memphis, TN, AHA booklet short notes, concerns - per page

Introduction notes:

Hello and welcome to an analysis of the AHA 'Church Repent' booklet by this FEDBP team. FEDBP stands for 'Foundations of Evangelism, Discipleship, and Biblical Preaching.' Our purpose is Bible studies and analyzing things that directly affect the body of Christ, specifically (and mostly focused) in the US. We have worked diligently on this report/study to be accurate and clear, yet gracious. (We work full-time as construction workers and we also regularly do street-evangelism, so we apologize for not having a chance to post this info sooner.)

FEDBP is a place where we provide free resources that help the body of Christ (as a whole) to watch out for wrong teachings, false teachers, and various attacks on the Bible that distract, confuse or hinder the genuine body of Jesus Christ. And, Lord-willing, we intend to keep doing it - as long as God leads us. We thank you for taking the time to analyze our many hours of research on this AHA movement and their published 'Church Repent' booklet and project. We pray for you (and others who read this) to have Biblical discernment to stand against wrong teachings, where you live. We know (as we're sure you do) that there are many wrong teachings world-wide, and we all desperately need to keep spending quality time in God's Word to help us see through the lies around us - from the culture, and from inside the churches and the religious organizations of the US. So, again, thank you for joining us - we pray this is a blessing to you. And, it's free to share if you like it.

As we said above, we have spent about 100 hours collectively working on this analysis and typing it up in a clear format so that the body of Christ can have an open and honest discussion. We've been working at this since we got the booklet 8 weeks ago. We have several resources on it. Here are the links:

You can find the 'Church Repent' AHA booklet here (it's non-copyrighted):

With that introduction, let's get to the analysis.

Thank you for your concern about this movement. Please let us state from the beginning that the AHA team does have some things correct, but they have a lot of things clearly wrong. If you have not read our initial analysis report first, you might want to start there. ~

As you read this page-by-page report, we think you'll understand why we are concerned and why that concern led to us writing an analysis of their booklet.

The focus of this report/study is to examine AHA team's booklet called the 'Church Repent' booklet and compare it to Scripture. A couple of years ago, we had heard a little about AHA, but didn't know anything about it, and we assumed them to be a productive, prolife organization. It was only when we got one of their booklets that we realized the severity of the problem. If AHA is new to you, then you also possibly do not know that AHA stands for: 'Abolish Human Abortion'. This AHA team says about itself that they seek to 'work out the most effective means to bring an immediate end to abortion in our nation' (as said on page 28). This AHA team produced this booklet for their AHA 'International Coalition Conference' on October 28th, 2014 in Memphis, TN, USA. Toby (one of their leaders) told us that this is their first rendition of their booklet. They say they are working on a second rendition, but they say there is no scheduled release date (yet). The book has a lot of secret things tucked in corners and hidden in pictures and disguised as Scriptural statements, including on the AHA shield or 'crest' as they call it (which we discuss at the very end of this report/study). This AHA team who wrote this booklet won't publish this booklet online and they only give it to specific people (specifically fellow leaders, and others who agree with them). But, since this booklet is not copyrighted, we took copies and are publicly releasing it so the body of Christ can have an open discussion of what is in their booklet, that apparently few have even been allowed to see. You can see their booklet here:

-- We are not writing this just to expose seriously flawed teaching, but because the wrong teaching of this founding AHA team has progressed so far that they are publicly and loudly falsely accusing every genuine believer that does not follow their opinions and join their movement. Sadly, they're pretty rude about it - in person and online. And, they are hurting a variety of evangelists that we see, in person and online. Simply put: this AHA team is demanding that you and we join their movement. And if we do not, they are intending to keep using the Bible, or any psychological tools to control or ridicule you/us until you/us do join them. If this AHA team were not affecting believers and evangelists and hurting them, we wouldn't have to say anything. But, because they are hurting people across the US (and lots of them), Biblically we see the need to speak up about how the Word of God and not to follow the AHA team as they twist it and falsely applied it to push/promote their disconnected agenda. As you read this analysis, you will also see by some of their quotes that violence is hinted at, which is odd considering AHA's public anti-violence statement. You can look at their non-violence statement here: www.abolishhumanabortion.com/abolitionism/why-abolition-must-be-non-violent ~ The only question left after reading that clear statement is - why did they print thousands of these booklets and give them out with coded violent imagery and wording? Are they 'against violence', or are they 'for violence'? As you read their booklet and this analysis, you will see that they are saying both things at the same time. Their conclusion is on the last 4 pages of their booklet... but, let's first start on page 1.

Another odd note about this AHA team before we get to page one: they can quote Scripture, but apparently, they seem to not understand what it means in context and in keeping with the whole of Scripture. First example: Idolatry is much more concerning to God than this AHA team says it is, but idolatry isn't what they say it is. And this AHA team is turning this anti-abortion movement that they created into a 'social works' gospel, with a reduced and incomplete gospel message in this booklet. (If you go on their website and look at their 'gospel' presentation page, you will find that like most Americans, they are missing important parts of the real gospel message that Jesus and His disciples taught.) >> You can see the AHA gospel message, here: <http://www.abolishhumanabortion.com/the-gospel>

Reading the Scripture in context is really easy. But, not everyone can read the Word of God and get it. That takes having the Holy Spirit and staying close to Him in purity, holiness, and a blameless testimony to hear His wisdom and to hear Him teach His Word and prompt/lead spiritual growth. Without the help and wisdom of the Holy Spirit, anyone can fall for confusions and wrong teachings like those who wrote this booklet.

So here is a page-by-page analysis, as we carefully compare what this AHA team says with what the Word of God says. We also hope that this AHA founding team repents or at very least stops falsely accusing genuine followers of Christ for not joining their movement.

On page 1, this AHA leadership gives a little intro. And in it, they say: "Test everything we say against the Word of God..." So, that is exactly what others are doing, and that is exactly what we are doing here in this article/study.

Hidden text at the bottom of this page: 'For we have mountains of ice around us to melt.' [They explain this on page 26, but first they build their 'case'.]

This AHA team quotes the First and Second Greatest Commandments well and accurately. What they missed is the focus of Jesus' teaching here. Many times in the Word of God (Old and New Testament), God emphasizes that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and departing from sin and evil is understanding (Job 28:28; Proverbs 1:7; Proverbs 9:10). And, because they missed that, they then get confused on the rest of applying God's law.

The verse says: “Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.” (James 1:27) As you can see, the subject of the passage isn't about a social gospel of 'good works', but a reminder to love our neighbor along the path of life as we love ourselves, cling to what's right and abhor evil with the qualifying detail at the end of the verse: “... and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.” So, here on page 2, they are already modifying definitions to lead you to their conclusion.

Then, this AHA team says: “... Elsewhere God describes the type of religious service and spiritual worship which he deems most acceptable and free from the charge of hypocrisy: to visit orphans and widows...” -- which they define as abortion ministry, on pages 12 and 13.

This AHA team also says: “This simple description of true worship is only that which all the prophets of God have long declared to His people.” ~ Yet, what they described here does not match what the prophets were teaching in text and context, but rather is evidence of an obedient heart or lack of an obedient heart.

This AHA team asks: “Does God ever hate the worship of His people?” To understand this in Biblical context, we need to define the phrase 'His people'. The Jewish people were identified as God's people by birth - directly related to Abraham. After Christ came and died, men and women only become His people by becoming adopted through salvation. The Jewish people were accepted as long as they followed the legal form of worship - and both saved and unsaved people did this. So, God was angry at some of 'His People' because the unsaved in the Jewish family were doing evil and then also doing the outward actions of worship. In contrast, those in Christ always have a new heart that worships God genuinely, not by rule of law.

So, the honest answer to this is a clear: No, God does not hate the worship of His people, and having said that, let us explain a little more. If someone is not obeying Christ but they are one of His children, He'll discipline them and teach them to grow in obeying His Word (Hebrews 12). But if there is neither a growth in understanding and obedience, nor active discipline from God on them to teach them to grow (of which happens to all of those adopted through Christ), then the person is illegitimate and not saved (Hebrews 12:8), and therefore is not one of "His people". Before we come to Christ, all of us are rebels against God - by choice, our rebellion makes us God's enemies, and a part of satan's spiritual family. (Jesus explained this in John 8, and John 10). When Jesus walked this earth, He rebuked many people when they were doing their favorite sins secretly, while publicly pretending to follow Him. Jesus taught that in Matthew 7, Luke 6, John 10, and John 14 (just to name a few). Only those who repent, turn from their sins, and find forgiveness in Jesus' sacrifice on the cross are saved, and that is then shown by a life of growth in holiness. A growth in holiness leads to worship and that comes from a heart that wants to worship and obey. Yes, indeed, God does despise the honor from the lips of hypocrites (Matthew 24:50-51; Revelation 22:14-15), but not the worship of genuine believers.

When does God get angry with those who claim His Name? When they are actively pursuing idolatry of this world and entertaining themselves with sin. For sure, God does get angry at the hypocrisy of saying we love God yet living for and pursuing our sin-wants. In James, God says it this way: "⁴Spiritual adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ⁵ Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, 'The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously?' ⁶ But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: 'God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.' ⁷ Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you." (James 4:4-7) ~ God uses trials and pains to teach us to love righteousness more and hate evil, and the more we grow to love His Word and obedience to Him, the more our worship will be pleasing to Him.

And we need to note - singing praise songs to God does not ever equal worship (that is a word that's been confused in modern days). Worship is an action that comes with a heart that is declaring and representing how good God is for what He has done and is doing, while committing our lives to join Him. This AHA team mentioned that briefly, but then took it a different direction. But, this passage clearly defines Biblical worship: "¹ I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. ² And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:1-2)

Here the AHA team mentions idolatry, but they don't define it, and the way they use that word throughout the book, it's pretty clear they don't understand a Biblical definition of idolatry. But, Colossians 3:5 defines it, as does 1st John 2:15-17, & Romans 1:18-32.

The second paragraph is inaccurate. The genuine church of Christ in the US is not a culture or the America 'Christian' culture many believe - that is a false theory. Romans 1 and Galatians 5 describe how the world is always doing evil... but to attribute the evil of the world onto the genuine church of Jesus Christ is dishonest. An easy example: If we look at the nation of Israel (which is distinct from the other examples), we do see that open, pagan worship and rituals to a false 'god' were popular, including 'child sacrifice' and blatant lawlessness on every subject. But, there was another element that angered God even more - the hardening of the hearts and the closing of the ears of the people of Israel. The hardened hearts and closed ears is why God gave up talking to the people of Israel and sending them prophets who called them to repent (for a while). He was still speaking, but they weren't listening. So as He had warned them, He allowed hostile enemies to come in and carry them out of the Promised Land into a foreign land, as a result of the unrepentant rebellion against Him, according to the Abrahamic Covenant and Mosaic Covenant. This Biblical example does not transfer to the U.S. at all. In brief, the only covenant the United States has is the covenant our founding fathers made with God, which included the US Constitution - neither of which are in recorded Scripture. So the nation of Israel and the collective union of 50 states called the United States - are very different.

This booklet starts to pretend here that 100 million people out of the 330 million people (1/3) in the US are 'Christians'. To use this high of a number shows that this AHA team is using statistics of someone who doesn't know the gospel or doesn't know that there are many false converts in so-called 'churches' who claim to be 'Christian' but are not genuinely saved. Then, this AHA team lumps the genuine believers who are growing in obeying and following Christ along with those who aren't. We (the FEDBP writer team here) are evangelists and we travel across the US and share the gospel in many cities and at a wide variety of events. We also get to talk with fellow evangelists (of various walks of life) often. From what we've seen and our comparing notes with other genuine believers, the number of genuinely saved Christians in the US seems to be more like 33 million to 50 million (that's 10% to 15%). Of that 10%-15%, from what we've seen, quite a few of them are active in some sort of evangelism. We also find that many of that category of genuine believers are not an active attendee at a 501c3 corporation. Home-churches and home-Bible studies are more prevalent and growing (2nd largest denomination in the US).

Now is a good time to bring this up - we're curious. Why does this AHA team quote 'Planned Parenthood' and CDC abortion numbers? Do they really think they can trust the lying numbers of 'Planned Parenthood' or the lying numbers of the CDC? Those organizations lie all the time to excuse murder and make it look normal - we can't trust them. They prove themselves unreliable every time someone carefully studies out their 'research'. Sometimes they hype the numbers; sometimes they lower the numbers. This AHA booklet references a link that no longer works (on page 7), but we researched and found a few other links that did work, and we even checked the 'abortion clock'. None of the numbers we found that are referenced ('Planned Parenthood', CDC, or Guttmacher) explain why AHA has such high numbers.

As for numbers of sales of RU486 (literally means: RU for murdering [86]?) and other abortion-pills, the number of sales is very hard to find. We looked, and couldn't find any records. But we also realize that even if we could find the number of sales, just because they are sold, that doesn't mean they are used. Vaccines are bought in large quantities by medical companies - but a good portion of them are never used (that's just one easy example). Based on what is available, the numbers look inflated. We know quotas are necessary to keep 'donor' funding and gov't funding... which again begs the question on the accuracy of these numbers. We did notice that if you take the highest estimates of total abortions in the US over the 42 years since 'Roe v Wade' (in 1973), then you get something close to 1.2 million... We don't have a conclusion on this, but we do ask: What are accurate numbers? How can we find accurate numbers?

One last question for this page: Why is the Bible reference Romans 13 upside down below the AHA symbol? that's odd.

Then, this AHA team starts to try to build their case that a lot of church-goers don't care about abortions happening. In some ways, they're correct there. But, this AHA team also starts to make their case of accusing genuine believers who do not actively protest abortion 'clinics' as also uncaring. They then quote fake church activities to justify their false accusations against genuine believers. They also use the words "... need to bring the entire system of oppression enabling their continued existence [the existence of abortion 'clinics' that is] into bold conflict with the Kingdom of Christ..." That's clearly hinting at conflict, which leads to violence. The only conflict Christ talked about was separation from the sin-pleasures of this world - not a direct physical conflict. We are not supposed to be trying to bring Christ's Kingdom to earth, but to be preaching the gospel, repentance, and becoming a bond-slave of Christ. Those are two very different messages. Jesus said this: "²⁰ Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, 'The kingdom of God does not come with observation; ²¹ nor will they say, "See here!" or "See there!" For indeed, the Kingdom of God is within you."" (Luke 17:20-21) Jesus is clear here - at that time (and even now), He is not building an earthly Kingdom. Christ is building His church (the body of Christ). However, satan's 666 "gov't" does and will keep trying to use the flawed teaching called 'Kingdom Now' or 'Kingdom Dominion' to insert and promote the culture's religious 'standards'. When Jesus comes, back - no one will miss it. "²⁴ For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day." (Luke 17:24) - Every eye will see Jesus return at judgment time.

Right now - here on Earth, Jesus is building/teaching/training up partners and ambassadors of the gospel. He is patiently allowing many more to repent... until He lets satan have his final reign of 7-year partially-limited rule and worship. Only after the 7-year Tribulation will Christ return to conquer and set up His Kingdom, first for the 1000 years (as described in the prophets), and then for eternity when evil is finally dealt with and all the thorough judgments against sin have been declared and carried out in perfect measure. Then He will create a new Heaven and a new Earth and then His reign will go on forever... But, that's in the future - not now. Jesus, even in His day, had to avoid the crowds at times because they wanted to force Him to be their self-centered idea of a conquering King who would defeat Rome... but He came as the 'Suffering Servant' the first time, to live, heal, teach, prove a blameless perfect life. And then He died on the cross for sin - once and for all - for all who will believe in Him, turn from sin, and put their trust fully in Him to follow and grow in His ways the rest of their short lives here on Earth (John 1:12-13). Jesus' Kingdom is coming... but for now, the message isn't: "Make way for the King!" Right now, the message is: "Turn from sin, find salvation in the cross, and grow in following Jesus." The push to set up an earthly utopia for Him to return to is a false 'social gospel' with lots of emphasis on doing 'good deeds', yet very little of repentance and teaching people to grow in obeying Christ. This type of message is one that even the antichrist will promote. We must all be cautious about following ideas that compel us to mistreat those who genuinely are following Christ, convincing us that you know more. We all must just hold to and grow in obedience to Scripture. What God says is true, even if everyone else is wrong.

We are not sure why they are pushing a take-back-the-culture/gov't perspective, but they do repeat it in this booklet a few times, and they also use it to push and promote their agenda. God, through Paul warned us to watch out for many false gospel messages: "⁸ But even if we, or an angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹ As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. ¹⁰ For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ." (Galatians 1:8-10) God is patient with all of us as we grow in preaching the clear gospel message that Jesus did, but we all must be wary of those who are intentionally teaching a false gospel message. We need to identify them and warn others against them.

Hidden words on the top of this page (pg6): 'If you are willing and obedient... (pg8)'you shall eat the good of the land...' (pg9) 'But if you refuse and rebel...' (pg9) 'you shall be eaten by the sword...' ~ That's certainly an odd passage to quote slowly over several different pages.

So, this AHA leadership team is falsely accusing genuine believers of being part of this regular murdering of their babies. They say that Christians who are not joining their movement in some way, are uncaring. Lumping genuine followers of Christ with false converts is dishonest. On this page, this AHA team started using the phrase 'child sacrifice' as part of their building points.

Hidden words in the circles on the corners of this page become a full sentence when pulled together. The full sentence reads:

'Long time members of a local Bible-believing church... planning to go into the ministry, have an 'unplanned' pregnancy... who decide to sneak off to the local abortion 'clinic'... where they sacrifice their child to the idol of self-love.'

On this page, the AHA movement gives some actual examples of people they have talked with, and that's good and helpful. What they said in this part is correct. But, in their explanations, it becomes clear that this AHA team doesn't know the gospel message of Jesus Christ. And, apparently, this AHA team doesn't realize that at least some of the people they talk to who said they were 'Christians' aren't Christians at all, according to Jesus' own words (as we noted above). Here are two more verses that talk about this. "²⁹ If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.” (1 John 2:29) And again: “¹⁹ Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: ‘The Lord knows those who are His’, and, ‘Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity [sin/rebellion against God].’” (2nd Timothy 2:19)

Then this AHA team says that if you contradict their numbers and examples, the reason is because you aren’t at the abortion mills so you can’t see it for yourself. And because they are at abortion ‘clinics’ often, they know more than you... But, it doesn’t matter what title someone carries or ‘leadership position’ they pretend to have. If they don’t know Christ, they aren’t saved. Jesus’ teachings in Matthew 13 show clear examples of those who are saved and those who are not. Our estimation from our experience is that it’s rare for a genuine believer to get an abortion - most of those who say they know Jesus but are okay with murdering a baby are self-deceived false converts who just think they are Christians, but God knows their hearts and sees right through their lies and hypocrisy, and their works and lifestyle prove that they love sin more than Christ.

Another oddity: At the bottom of this page, this AHA team quoted the Didache. Here’s that quote: “Do not murder a child by abortion or kill a newborn infant. - Didache (First Century)” The quote is... helpful. But you (like we did), are probably asking: what is the Didache? We looked it up as well, and found out that it is thought to be a sort of collective commentary writings on the Scripture texts the apostles had supposedly written. Who wrote the Didache is a mystery and its reliability (based on a simple, quick read of it) is iffy, and it certainly doesn’t carry any of the same weight as Scripture, for it is really merely men’s logic analyzing some parts of God’s Word. So, why did this AHA team quote it?

“Abortion is our culture’s accepted form of child sacrifice. Long gone are the days when children are publicly killed in ritual sacrifice...” This AHA team apparently is not aware (or ignoring) that satanic ritual sacrifices takes place still. It is not common American people doing that. It’s a very small group of very wealthy people who also want to bring about satan’s ‘kingdom’ on Earth (New World Order) - who do this. This is common info for anyone who wants to see it. It’s not happening as secretly as satan would wish. Point being - we are living in a day where actual satanic rituals still happen. But, those who go to abortion ‘clinics’ are not a part of that system. Yes, they are murdering their baby and God will hold them fully accountable for that and the secret motives of their hearts for doing so. But they are not doing a public ritual sacrifice as people in the ancient days were, and as modern satanists and occultists do.

This is a literal example of what God is talking about: “¹⁷ Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the ‘queen of heaven’; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹ Do they provoke Me to anger?’ says the LORD. ‘Do they not provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?’” (Jeremiah 7:17-19)

Remember, satan has no new ideas - he only repeats old evil ideas, or tries to counterfeit God’s good and holy things and patterns (John 8:44). But, this AHA team wants to change ‘child sacrifice’ into a modern allegory, borrowing the imagery from the Old Testament but Hidden words specifically and carefully drawn into the tree: 'This abortion mill is surrounded by over 100 local churches.' ~ That's an interesting quote to hide in a tree. Why?

Then this AHA team says that the people having abortions are our ‘neighbors’, and are being murdered by our ‘neighbors’ by churchgoers and baby-murdering abortion ‘doctors’ - who are also our ‘neighbors’. (While it is true that we are all humans, they are already stretching the definition of ‘neighbor’). As you’ve probably

More on neighbors: a dead baby is very different from a baby that was left outside somewhere. You might be able to help the baby left somewhere, but you cannot help the baby that is dead. But, the AHA founders say if you don't stop abortions, then you, quote: 'fail to be their neighbor'. So, what is a neighbor? Here's a Biblical definition:" ¹⁷ But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?" (1st John 3:17) ~ The rest of this quote is interesting as well: 'To fail to love your neighbor is to fail to be Christian.' Wow. So, now are they saying if you don't help a neighbor the way they say you should, that you're not saved? Sure looks that way...

This AHA team then takes it further to say that those who don't join this AHA team's movement and somehow stop people from doing abortions, then (this AHA team says) we aren't saved. That is a lie. But, this AHA team is two-faced even on this subject, because on page 30, they say "This is not soteriological" (meaning: this is not a matter of the doctrine of salvation). So AHA team, which is it? Is this a subject of salvation, or is it not? ~ Aside from the double-wording, this AHA team does give their version of a solution on later pages.

Another concern: At the top of the page, the AHA team has this (slightly hidden) phrase: 'they shall be eaten by the sword'. That is a threat - do you see it? Is someone threatening to murder those who don't join this AHA movement? That kind of threat is what the mafia does, or other evil abusers. Those are tactics of abusers not of genuine faithful disciples of Christ. Sadly, this AHA team is good at insulting and slandering, but poor on studying and rightly dividing the Word of God.

This AHA team says that 1.2 million babies are aborted every year, and then they try to pretend that we have a culture of sexually immoral murderers. Actually, 1.2 million people is less than 1% of the US population. If that number is true, we would agree that it is serious that this many babies are being murdered every year. But, even if that number is true, it is not true that we have a culture of murder, right now. We do have abusers in positions of authority and masquerading as 'doctors' and 'scientists', but we don't have a culture of murder. Also, this AHA team ignores that the people doing abortions and getting abortions are doing it quietly and in shame and fear - unlike the public brazen satanic rituals they try to equate this to, from history.

Quote from the last paragraph: 'Only in a culture where the churches have lost their salt and light would the question of whether or not child sacrifice ought to remain legal, ever appear on the ballot.' A question for this AHA team: how does this statement work in Turkey? There are genuine Christians there in Turkey who aren't in the majority, just like genuine Christians aren't in the majority here in the US. Does this statement still ring true in Turkey or another Arab country? No. Their statement is just another concisely worded false accusation. Secondly, it is evident and public record that all of the modern politicians are controlled by bribes. We can't seem to find any who aren't controlled by bribes. Thirdly, this AHA team is talking about the agendas and activities of the evil Bush family, the evil Rockefellers, and similar elite families who are using their money to push the agenda of abortion-murder (as well as murder in various other sectors of society). The push for abortion is not a 'Christian' push - it is an elite push and agenda (the less than 1% elites). * Again, child sacrifice is not what is taking place at abortion 'clinics'. It is just murder. * \(To find out more, look up the Rockefeller/UN 'Agenda 21', the 'Georgia Guidestones', or similar big-money agendas, even their own quotes, etc...\)

Now, this AHA team makes up more stuff, including more false definitions. Quote: 'Who are our widows? Who are our orphans?' Their question implies that we have different definitions that apply to us and our society than those in ages past. But, what is a widow? What is an orphan? Let's look at some literal definitions.

Widow: 'a married woman who has been deprived by death of her husband.'

Orphan: 'a child who has been deprived by death of one or usually both parents.'

What are AHA's definitions?

Widow quote: 'A widow is a woman who has been forsaken, neglected, and disregarded. She is alone. She is in need. She has no husband, boyfriend, father, brother, or friend to lead her, love her, or help her.' ~ As you can see they use genuine, caring emotion to try to create a 'new' definition.

Orphan quote: 'An orphan is a child who has been discarded, devalued, and abused, with no one to care or cry out for them. They have no choice in their state, yet those who should have cared for them have left them to fend for themselves, starve to death, suffer abuse, or die.' ~ Again, they use genuine, caring emotion to try to create a 'new' definition.

So, why does this AHA team reject literal and Biblical definitions? Because using the literal and Biblical definitions would not help them push their agenda. So, they are using modified definitions of 'what it means to them' so they can use emotion, shame, insult, and threat to move people to join their movement and organization. The AHA founders here claim to be followers of Christ - so, why are they treating mistreating and trying to manipulate brethren this way?

Quote from the last paragraph: 'The reason people do not practice pure and undefiled religion is because they are stained by the world and love themselves more than they love others.' There is another error from this AHA team. We agree that many Americans today follow idols of the non-Christian music realm, and even idols in the 'Christian' music industry. Other popular idols of today's culture are the sinful entertainment that describes virtually every TV show (trash vendor), movie, and work of 'fiction' in print today. And, then we have people who like to be called 'pastors' who do not fit the 1st Timothy 3 and Titus 1 and 2 model/pattern that God set forth. Instead, these false 'pastors' turn to fables, flattery and bribing to gain followers after themselves and earn the money, fame, and praises of rebellious men and women. These so-called 'pastors' love to use satanic psychology and philosophy to help men and women think that they do not have to obey God's Word. These liars often refer to God's Word as stories or allegories and good 'moral lessons', and have turned their 'churches' into 501c3, tax-exempt businesses. That is the idolatry that God describes in James 1:27, if read in context.

This page starts with an insightful quote: 'It is difficult to call all women who turn to abortion as an answer for their unplanned pregnancy as 'widows'... It is not just 'difficult' to use lying definitions, it's actually deceitful, as we've explained previously.

The Scriptures contradict this AHA team. This AHA team asserts that all ladies who go to murder their baby at an abortion 'clinic' are knowingly murdering their baby... But, that is not always true. The religion of evolution has been funded and taught in the US prominently for over 150 years. That religion (which is taught as 'fact') deceives people into thinking they are a product of random chance (no right, no wrong, no value of life), and those who are newly pregnant (especially when young) do not fully understand that the "life" inside is a baby with a soul, and that God has created him/her (Psalm 139). But, in addition to the lies of the religion of evolution, we must also address the lies that are caused by sin. Some ladies are forced/coerced or lied to by very evil people to get them to murder their baby, and they don't realize it is indeed a baby until too late, and the proof is they grieve about it for the rest of their lives. That is not willful murdering. That is deceived, with lifelong guilt and shame. When we are knowingly living in sin, we are being blinded - and most often we can't even see that we are being blinded by it. That's the deception of sin. Yet in it, God does recognize that there is (at least sometimes) a measure of ignorance and naivety (Isaiah 1:18). To condemn all ladies who have abortions as intentionally and wickedly murdering is to not understand Scripture, or the deception of false teaching and the deception of willful sin.

Here are some Scriptures that talk about this: ¹² Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ¹³ Let no one say when he is tempted, 'I am tempted by God'; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone. ¹⁴ But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death. ¹⁶ Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren... (James 1:12-16) - And again, we see this subject of being deceived here: ¹² Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. ¹³ But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. (2 Timothy 3:12-13) - That passage is specifically talking about false teachers, but the "deceiving and being deceived" principles apply to all people, just like gravity. Jesus taught some about this in Matthew 13 and other places. Another key passage on this is Galatians 6:7-9.

When truth is not taught plainly and clearly by teachers who are living blamelessly, the deception of false teachers can and does run more rampant, because the fear of God is not being made known that would drive people away from sin and toward holiness and walking pure. Many girls who get to see their baby before their abortion or after their abortion awake to the reality that abortion is murder, and many deeply grieve over it for years, often the rest of their lives. But, this AHA team goes on to say: '... and yet in a way, we do believe... they are our culture's widow class...' - What? Is this AHA team unaware of the many widows that the murderous medical system creates? Or are they unaware of the many widows the murderous military/empire organization creates? This AHA team is not being honest. Again, quoting them: 'Regardless of the situation or circumstances, the child is... in every sense of the word, an orphan' - Intentional lying reduces credibility.

This page simply says that Christ forgives sin (specifically murder). This is correct. But murder isn't a more grievous sin than others, though it does have a heavy penalty, but so does sexual immorality, so does witchcraft. But also, so does lying, stealing, blaspheming God's Holy Name, etc. Christ died for more than murder. All sins are acts of rebellion - not accidents. God can deal graciously with mistakes (and does), but He must allow consequences here on earth for rebellion so that we'll learn to stop. Otherwise, we'd stay on that path to our own destruction. Salvation is through Christ alone, and 'sin' according to God's Word is lawlessness and rebellion. The AHA team got this partially right, but limited it far too much to be helpful.

This page is a great reminder of God's forgiveness for those who truly repent from murder and other sins. They also correctly noted that to hide the truth from someone is cruel. And, they also correctly noted that to confront sin with the convicting power of the Word of God is loving, while not preaching against sin is wrong and cruel. They also rightly call abortion murder, even if the culture is not that clear or honest on it. But, the AHA team did not discuss any other sins. They didn't explain that sin is not accidents or mistakes, but rebellion against God. They didn't explain what repentance is as described in John 3 or 2nd Corinthians 5:17 or Mark 8:34-38. They also didn't talk about the difference between genuine conversion and false conversion... But, they did get some essentials.

This part of the AHA team's logic is baffling to us. Christ didn't just die for murder. But, that is all this group seems to talk about. They don't talk about the roots of the problem - just a symptom: abortion. This AHA team doesn't reference or speak on the evils of rape or sexual immorality or porn in this booklet - they don't even mention them. They don't reference or speak on the lies of evolution - they don't even mention it. They don't reference or speak on the wrong teachings and sins of the TV, books, movies, and games that encourage people to do rebellion (including porn) that leads to 'unwanted pregnancies' either - they don't even mention them. All this AHA team mentions is one word: murder. The 10 Commandments talk about a lot more than just one sin. This group isn't teaching repentance, but using the word repentance to push their point, which leads people to follow their agenda, and to then (they hope) join their movement and organization.

'To withhold the truth about a person's sin when you have an opportunity to speak the truth in love is selfish and cruel. To deny them the gospel of grace by excusing their sin and covering up their need for Christ is hateful and un-Christlike. To speak the truth without love is a clanging cymbal (1 Cor. 13:1). To deny truth and call it love is selfish - an act of false compassion and cruel duplicity. This is why we call it murder.' Do you see what they are doing again? They are intentionally placing on you guilt and shame, and leaving you with only one way out: join their organization and movement. Each of those statements have some truth in them. But, consider Christ's example. Was He always truthful? Yes, of course He was at the highest most-honorable end of truthfulness. Did He confront every single sin in every single situation? No. If He had, He would have overwhelmed those whom He was talking with. He taught holiness in a way that grew the understanding, which the Holy Spirit then prompted them to grow in obeying, or to have to reject obedience and drift further from the truth. This AHA team is continuing to construct a logic where you see things their way and only their way - not according to the literal Scriptures or Christ's own example. The way they are 'teaching' is wrong and self-centered.

This AHA team repeats itself, but we've already looked at many of these repeats above. Many people come to Jesus for a variety of reasons (Matthew 13; Luke 9:58-62), but only those who come to Him, repent and turn from their sin, and commit their lives to follow and serve Him are genuinely saved, the rest are false converts until they get genuinely saved. Jesus clearly describes this in Matthew 13 in a few parables, including the 'Parable of the Soils'.

They are correct that this is what a baby looks like inside the Mom at around 18 days old. And those who love and follow Jesus and obey His Word, do love and pray for babies and their families. As we noted above, to God, loves begins at conception and God counts it as a human, and it has an eternal soul (Luke 1:41,44).

And this page is correct in that this is what an 'aborted' baby looks like murdered at a very early age. And according to God, our Creator, to kill the baby in the mother's womb is murder. There is repentance for murder, but some actions have baggage and consequences for the rest of life - and murder is one of those. Sexual immorality that leads to 'unwanted pregnancies', also has lifelong consequences and baggage. Fleeing from sin and growing in following Christ is the only way to avoid lifelong and eternal regrets and shame.

A good note that this AHA team has on this two-page set is that 'This [unborn baby] is our neighbor'. We agree that unborn babies are people who Creator God cares about and so should we. But, if they aren't near us, they don't fit the Biblical definition of 'neighbor'. And, the unborn are not the only neighbors we are commanded to love. Meaning - reaching out to mothers and explaining to them what abortion is and how wrong it is, and sharing the gospel - that is a way to serve Christ, but it is only one place and one way to teach people to follow Jesus. It is not the only way, the main way, or the most important way or place to obey Jesus' command to train up disciples. Being pro-gospel and training up disciples of Jesus Christ is the most important direction of this life. Jesus said it clearly: "¹⁸ Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in Heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.' Amen."

The AHA team repeated it again, so we're noting it again - (top left of the page) 'Is this really the neighbor that Jesus commanded us to love?' ~ Yes, unborn babies are among our neighbors, but unborn babies are not the only neighbors that we are supposed to care about, and anti-abortion and 'ending abortion' shouldn't be our main focus in this life. And, sharing and explaining the gospel of Jesus Christ needs to be our main focus in this life.

This page is another example of turning the question (and Scripture) into a false accusation. Please note that in the top right corner, they repeat this phrase: 'Desiring to justify himself, he said "And who is my neighbor?"' ~ The rest of this page is John 10:29-37, which is a great passage with much to learn from. But, we wish this AHA team weren't twisting it to be a tool to falsely accuse Christians of not caring, and to try to coerce people to join their agenda. (You'll see their full accusation on page 25.) Were you and we walking along the road and came across a baby injured or dying or abandoned? No. They are turning Scripture into 'modern' allegories with 'modern' meanings to promote their agenda.

Please also notice the dead dragon by the side of the road, chopped in two pieces, on the bottom right.

On this page, you can see a map of the Memphis, TN area and the big blood-blotch is where the abortion 'clinic' is, the rest of the red dots are where supposed 'churches' are, many or most of them are 501c3 corporations/businesses. On this page, is where the AHA team gets more aggressive in their false accusations against genuine believers of Christ. Here's their quote: 'How can it be that babies are murdered every minute of every day in a nation where, every week, hundreds of thousands of church buildings fill with people who dare to sing praises to the God of justice and mercy?...' The aggressive lies continue in paragraph 2: 'Child sacrifice is not only being carried out by people who do not profess to follow God, but it is also being carried out people who profess to know Christ. It is being ignored by those who truly believe they are in right standing with God. The Church has

'shut her eyes' to the injustice of legalized abortion occurring down the street from her meeting places.' -- We have unpacked many of these lies in previous pages.

Next, this AHA team makes the broad false accusation that those who are not actively protesting abortion 'clinics', and the homes and churches of those who do abortions, 'do not care'. That's a blatant lie. None of us can force someone to not do evil, nor can any of us force anyone to do what is right. Each person is responsible for their obedience to God or their rebellion against God. If they intentionally and actively give approval to murder, then yes, God will hold them accountable for that too. But, just because genuine believers aren't joining this AHA movement/organization doesn't equal that the genuine believers don't care. This anti-abortion movement is certainly not the most important thing to do in life - sharing the gospel is. And as long as followers of Christ are growing in studying and obeying the Word of God, and sharing the Word of God and the gospel with those around them, then they are being faithful to obey Jesus, even if they aren't obeying this AHA team. The next page builds on these false facts and false definitions.

Also, here again this AHA team is falsely accusing Christians of not caring by blaming genuine believers for the majority who truly don't care about the Bible or the gospel or prolife issues.

And this AHA team even makes their words harsher against believers who don't want to join their anti-abortion movement.

Quote from last paragraph on this page: 'If God attributed guilt to the people of Israel for ignoring injustice and oppression, how much more guilt will be held against His people who are indwelt by His Spirit and who have far greater revelation of God in the Person of Jesus Christ?' Jesus never said anything about abortions of His day or ours, specifically. He did, however, constantly expose every sin, call for repentance, and pointed to the cross for cleansing, salvation, and growth in obedience to the Word, as adopted son and daughters.

This page has more half-truths from this AHA team. Again, abortion is not 'child-sacrifice' (but we just covered that on the analysis on previous pages). Nor is it true that all people who don't protest or work to end/stop abortions are 'accomplices to murder' (again covered in analysis of the previous page).

A key quote from this page: '... In each passage, guilt is attributed to the man of God or the people of God for ignoring evil.' ~ This AHA team continues to over-reach to promote and push their anti-abortion agenda. The numbers of genuine Bible-believing followers of Christ in the US who are caring about, paying attention to, and speaking out against evil and abusers in the US and worldwide is growing by the day. That caring group of believers has been on the major increase for at least the last 5-10 years - it's not decreased. But according to this AHA team and booklet, if you aren't joining and championing their AHA anti-abortion campaign, then you are 'ignoring evil.' So, as we hope you're seeing, this AHA team continues to falsely accuse Christians to push their agenda. That should not be the method of a genuine Bible believer. But that is one of the favorite methods of abusers to control, flatter, manipulate, and dominate. We call this AHA founders-team to repent of this dishonest approach, and for their many lies, lying definitions and half-truths. The old liar, satan, accuses (and falsely accuses) genuine believers day and night - that should not describe those who call themselves Christians.

They also further develop their false accusations against genuine believers by quoting a well-known Christian icon, Francis Schaeffer. The quote reads: 'Every abortion clinic should have a sign over the door that says "Open by permission of the churches in this area."' ~ This AHA team may be correctly quoting Francis Schaeffer, but both Francis and this AHA team are falsely accusing Bible-believing Christians. Please allow us to explain.

First off, Francis Schaeffer is held up by some to be a great Christian leader of old. But, Mr. Schaeffer was really more of a philosopher than Bible teacher, and you can see that easily because he loved to talk about the Bible. The odd thing is that he rarely quoted much of the Bible, but, that is why the world likes him so much. Quoting man's words is easy, but they don't have any weight. Good literal convicting teaching of Bible passages carries some weight. But the Word of God is the only source of life (Isaiah 55:11; Colossians 1:15-17). So, for Mr. Schaeffer to refuse to quote God's Word when he spoke or quote it much in his papers is very telling about the man. He is held as a 'Bible scholar', yet he didn't even quote what was supposed to be his source text. That's not a Bible teacher, that's a philosopher who likes to talk about the Bible.

Another point on Mr. Schaeffer before we get back to his quote is this - he loved to include and elaborate psychological terms with the world's definitions, instead of teaching the Bible and using Biblical definitions. That's a key problem, and again a key reason we say he was a philosopher, not a Bible teacher. Yes, we are aware that his works are in many seminaries in the US and yes we are aware that many public 'Christian leaders' promote or quote his many books. But, as you know, popularity does not prove honesty or God's backing. People are deceived by what they want to believe. Jesus Himself warned us that when the world and the majority of believers are praising us - watch out, we are getting close to being identified with the false prophets by God Himself. "²⁶ Woe to you when all men speak well of you, For so did their fathers to the false prophets." (Luke 6:26) - If the world hates us because we call them to repent and turn from all sins and rebellion, including idolatry, and call things 'sin' that the world wants to excuse as 'normal' - then, be that as it may, we must keep on obeying Christ and preaching the gospel. And, that is what Jesus taught would happen when we teach like He did with love and honesty of God's justice, forgiveness and judgment. If that describes us, then let's just make sure we continue doing it with gentleness and careful honesty.

But, if the world applauds our message or commends us publicly as 'Christian leaders' while our message doesn't match Jesus' clear teachings or the Bible, then we're in huge trouble with God. In John, God explains it this way: "⁴² Nevertheless even among the religious rulers many believed in Jesus, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; ⁴³ for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." (John 12:42-43) - There's a key quality difference between quoting and teaching God's Word literally, and giving our lofty thoughts about what we think God is like. Literal Scripture leads us to understand the real God. Lofty ideas about God and refusing to take God's Word literally and grow in obeying the Word - leads to many heresies in the name of 'Christianity', for it is quite literally making a 'god' in our own image. And, God calls that: idolatry.

Now back to the quote of Mr. Schaeffer: 'Every abortion clinic should have a sign over the door that says "Open by permission of the churches in this area." - This isn't honest. Should Christians care about prolife subjects and stop trusting other people to handle all of the communication and investigation in the science fields, etc? Yes. But, is it the fault of the Christians at large for the existence of abortion mills? No. How so, you ask? It's simple. God doesn't force us to do good or evil. He says that clearly in several places in the Word, here is one. "¹² Blessed is the man who endures temptation... ¹³ Let no one say when he is tempted, 'I am tempted by God'; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone." (James 1:12-13, we quoted the rest above) - We rebel against God when we choose to sin instead of choosing to obey His commands. That's our actions, not God's fault. And, on the same Biblical logic - it is not our fault (as genuine Bible believers) that the abortion 'clinics' exist. Rebellious humans are going to be rebellious until they repent and God changes their heart. If this AHA team could shut down all of the abortion 'clinics' in the US and worldwide, it would not stop people from getting abortions. Look through history - abortions happened in many places and in many ways, and there weren't abortion 'clinics' to do them. You see abortions (meaning baby murder) happening in Exodus 1:22. There you will find Pharaoh trying to murder babies - and it had nothing to do with ritual sacrifice, only the jealousy of a dangerously prideful, power-hungry king of Egypt. Matthew 2:7, 12-18 shows another king, King Herod, and his example of murdering babies, while trying to murder Jesus in baby-form (again, this example is not human sacrifice).

Another example is Tertullian (2nd century AD) saving babies (born from temple prostitution) who were left to die on the steps of one of the pagan temples of his day. We've heard other people reference other examples as well.

So, what is our point? If we could stop and shut down all abortion 'clinics', it would not stop abortions. Are we saying - don't try? No. We are simply noting that God doesn't want us to build our life on just trying to shut down abortion 'clinics' and stop all abortions. God uses the proclamation of His Word to shut down a lot of sin and change a lot of hearts - so if you want to really and truly shut down abortions, preach the clear undiluted gospel of Jesus Christ with repentance and cost of discipleship, and we know that God will be using you to make an impact, even if the world never gives loud recognition or commendation.

This page is mostly just a gross, graphic, and inappropriate drawing, but it does correctly show (though indecently) one regular form of modern live-baby abortion/murder.

Also of interest on this page:

- Quote 'God hates the hands that shed innocent blood...' ~

That quote is in the top right-hand corner of this page and it is a small clip of Proverbs 6:16-19 of six things God hates, yes seven things that are an abomination (completely detestable) to Him. It does describe His disgust with murder, but it doesn't extend further than that.

- Quote 'The people of God are supposed to hate what God hates.' - That is a true statement, but it is building off of the other statement in the top-right corner, and is implying that Bible-believing Christians should act in judgment on rebellion as God would act in judgment on rebellion, which is not equivalent at all.

Also a good question for this AHA team: 'Why does this group use the words 'Christian' and 'people of God' interchangeably? In today's culture, both phrases are very confused and not clearly defined or understood. The words 'people of God' have a ring of ecumenism to them, because that phrase is used by most religions around the world to describe what they believe is the one-common religion - the lie of 'we all worship the same "god"'. But, 'Christian' most often usually refers to someone who reverences the Bible somewhat and claims to follow Christ. This AHA team intentionally and regularly includes a wider scope of people in their broad definition of 'Christian' than what Jesus clearly defined in what He taught. Just because someone claims to be a 'Christian' or they have a 'Christian' fish symbol, or a 'Christian' t-shirt, or they have or carry a Bible - that doesn't mean they are Christian, and it's dishonest to imply that they're the same category. (For more on this, see: Matthew 7:13-14; Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 6:46; John 14:15,21,23-24.)

Tiny words at the bottom: 'The only thing necessary to keep abortion legal is for the church to continue to do nothing serious about it.'

In addition, this AHA team is still trying to pretend that the 'Christian Kingdom' is like the old nation of Israel under God's rule. The AHA team apparently believes both the lying 'Replacement Theology' and the lying 'Kingdom Dominion' theology. We look at what Jesus had to say about His Kingdom as we analyze the next page.

Here the AHA team changes subjects again to push more forcefully the false accusations they've built up until now as they try to close the case of why you/we should join their anti-abortion movement/cause. The first four paragraphs are repeats of half-truths that we've covered earlier on in this analysis study.

Paragraph 5 has a new element. 'The people of God have not lost any power or responsibility... We have been equipped with every spiritual gift for the building up of the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in Heaven.' -- [as above, so below], an occultic sleight of hand that also shows up in the AHA logo.]

On this page, the AHA team explains that they believe that the organized "churches" represent 100,000,000 believers who they say have not stopped the killing of 57,000,000 babies/image-bearers (since Roe v. Wade in 1973). They state that "this is not the Kingdom of God!", as though we aren't properly representing God's kingdom because abortion still continues. 1 John 3:15 explains, "... you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him." Jesus said that Satan comes to "steal, kill, and destroy" (John 10:10). So, the Word of God points out that God's Kingdom is not in their hearts if they are a murderer, and that the Kingdom of God is actually in the hearts of those who through faith in Christ are not sexually immoral nor murderers. Jesus said, "The Kingdom of God does not come with observation; nor will they say, 'See here' or 'See there'! For the Kingdom of God is within you." These leaders of AHA, however, have this to say about God's Kingdom contrary to Scripture: 'Should our culture so rampantly practice every abomination decried by the prophets of God now that we have become the body and bride of Christ? By no means.... Some may say that Old Testament Israel was expected to do justice and show mercy but that we in the Church age are to focus on other things.... This is Satanic thinking!.... The people of God have not lost any power or responsibility. In fact, we have gained power and been given an even greater responsibility.... We have been equipped with every spiritual gift for the building up of the Kingdom of God on earth as it is in Heaven!.... Whatever it is that we have been building has not been bright enough to push back the darkness engulfing our culture as evidenced by the present abortion holocaust.' - They then broadly reference Matthew 5:13 - 6:34 and Luke 12:35-48.

Secondly, this AHA team accurately notes that genuine believers have access to the Father through Jesus and can have boldness in coming into His Heavenly Court and praying for things we see concerning His Word and the souls of men and women. When our ways please the Lord, He hears us (Psalm 66:18; 1st John 5:14). And this AHA team is right that Jesus is King of kings (Revelation 19:16), Shepherd (John 10) and Savior of them that know Him and are known by Him (1st Timothy 2:15) - and He always will be.

But, this AHA team is wrong when they say that followers of Christ are supposed to be establishing His physical rule and reign on the Earth - right now. Jesus, Himself, made it clear that the true Kingdom of God (right now) is within human hearts of those who repent, turn from sin, and find salvation in Jesus alone, and they show this by following Him, sharing His Word and training others to follow Him too (as we explained previously).

In the seventh paragraph on this page, this AHA team says this: ‘Whatever it is we have been building, it has not been salty enough to prohibit the decay of our culture to a degree that the same people who slaughter babies put money in the offering plates of their local church. Whatever it is that we have been building, it has not been bright enough to push back the darkness engulfing our culture as evidenced by the present abortion holocaust.’

There are so many twists in that quote. It is somewhat accurate and at the same time, false in the way it’s presented. We almost have to take it line-by-line. Okay, so they start by calling out the 501c3 ‘churches’ who allow abortion ‘doctors’ and those who get an abortion to come into there, feel no remorse for their sins (because the Word is not truly taught there), and they get money to keep the organizations going. They are right there - the 501c3 organizations have gotten so corrupt, fake, and spiritually dead, that God is fed up with them and He is outside of almost all of them, while only talking to those genuine believers, who for a time remain there, inside these fake religious organizations. But, that is the very reason why the home-church movement is the 2nd largest denomination in the US, as of 2006. There are many in the US who want to hear the Word read and taught - all of it. Also, a ‘church’ according to the Bible is a gathering of believers (see Book of Acts), not a building. And the church certainly is not the 501c3 tax-exempt corporations that teach little to nothing these days. So, to blame genuine believers for what the big corrupt religious corporations are doing - is neither accurate nor honest. (If you’d like to know more about the home-church movement, message us at the FEDBP page on Facebook.)

Secondly, genuine salvation cannot be brought about through outward rules and laws - that is just to keep rebellion down and the healthy fear of the Lord prevalent so lawlessness doesn’t abound and abusers don’t overrun things. To pretend that if we could just solve a symptom and that would magically change everything else - is dishonest and confused. And to call the abortion industry a ‘holocaust’ - which in some ways it is, is to ignore the other ways that the same evil people that fund the abortion industry, are also funding several other forms of murder. Is that the American people? Mostly no. Is that the genuine believers in Christ? No. Is that the elites and fake ‘Christian’ leaders? Yes. Do you see the difference? They are using what others are doing and blaming it on you - a genuine believer. And that is where we say they are wrong. They keep doing it to push their agenda and get you to join their movement.

We cannot ‘solve’ a symptom of rebellion (abortion, rape, drug addiction, porn addiction, alcohol addiction, stealing, etc) and actually solve the problem of sin. Anyone can ‘reform’. That is why America has so many 12-step programs, half-way houses, and self-help books everywhere. We have many who are not genuinely saved that are very good at acting (at least somewhat) ‘Christian’. The problem is that most of them have never had a change of heart as described in 2nd Corinthians 5:17, or become ‘born again’, as Jesus described in John 3 to Nicodemus. The problem is not the self-destructive symptom - the problem is the rebellious heart. But, just because the symptoms are rampant doesn’t also mean God is about to destroy all of America either. That is why we clearly note the amazing work of God in many hearts across the US. God is actively working in the US and that is why we see a significant increase in homeschooling, home-churches, and people sharing the gospel everywhere. Why? Because no one is listening to God anymore? God is actively working, and we have many in the US that God is using all of the hardships that we’re going through to mold people into His image and raise up a new body of spiritual judges who will not judge by appearances, but with righteous judgment and proclaim, teach, and explain God’s Word, as Jesus taught us to. There’s hope brothers and sisters! Keep praying, spending quality time in the Word of God, and sharing it with others! God is working!

Another note - the only right way to actually 'stop' abortions is by removing the judges that take bribes, and replacing them with honorable men who will refuse to take bribes, uphold the law, and then start arresting and prosecution criminals and abusers - as the Bible and the US Constitution show. We can plead with people to stop doing evil. We can show them and teach them from Scripture why it's wrong and how much trouble they are getting into the more they do evil. And we can (and need to) pray for God to work on and soften the hearts of those we speak to turning them from sin, to Christ. And we can support those that the Word of God and the US Constitution give power and authority to arrest and prosecute: evildoers, murderers, and corrupt abusers in positions of power and authority.

Now this AHA team tries to close their case - on you. Quote: 'We are all guilty. We have all taken the other side of the road like the Priest and Levite who did not love their neighbor...' ~ Really? All? Sorry AHA team - you are wrong. From what we see, this team is only maybe speaking for themselves and/or about themselves. But one thing is for sure - they do not accurately speak for the body of genuine believers and followers of Christ. Maybe this is the AHA team's confession that they've been lukewarm and have grown too attached to the trinkets and sin-pleasures of this temporary world? We don't know. But, either way, they are not speaking for believers who love Jesus, His Word, and obey Him.

Paragraph 5 Quote: '... We have despised and rejected those who reprove evil in the gate and have marginalized those who seek to correct oppression and establish justice.' ~ Wow... that's very telling. Did you catch it? This AHA team is trying to use a new level of the blame game to falsely accuse those who examine their teachings according to Scripture and those who don't join them are now supposedly 'persecuting' them in their cause. Hey AHA team, when you use many false definitions, falsely apply verses to say what they do not say in context, and when your teachings twist God's Word and use it to push your agenda, then it is proper for God to raise up laborers who will help rescue people from your lies. You are in a fight with God - that is not persecution. ² Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. ³ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; ⁴ and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. ⁵ But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." (2nd Timothy 4:2-5) -- Honest believers need to be like the Bereans in Acts 17. There are many honest believers who do not know about this AHA cause/movement, so these believers are not 'avoiding' or 'persecuting' this anti-abortion movement/cause. There is, however, a group of believers who realize that there's something very wrong with the AHA leadership, and don't know what to do with them because of their dishonesty to promote their agenda. That also is not persecution - that is proper carefulness to make sure that we are following God, not becoming followers after men with a short-sighted cause.

Speaking of reasons people are pulling back from AHA - this page starts to promote their active move to protest in front of honest churches and 501c3 'churches' that do not join their movement. Look at the picture on the bottom and you'll see the advertisement for church-protests. [That's Todd Bullis depicted in that drawing with the 'Repent Church' sign. He is one of the writers of this booklet.]

At the very bottom of this page, you also find another interesting quote: 'The churches in America have not failed to be pro-life, they have failed to be Christian' Okay - so you got that? If you don't join their movement, you have failed to be Christian. Okay... now, let's look at page 30: '... This is not soteriological...' Okay, so now this AHA team is saying that this doesn't have to do with being saved or not. So, which is it - AHA team? Are you saying those who are not joining your movement aren't saved, or are you not saying that? You contradicted yourself, again, just 6 pages apart.

Having spent weeks reading and studying their writings (here and online), we have noticed that their writings indicate that they lack a Biblically-accurate systematic theology about God and the sinfulness of man. They apparently don't understand what sin is, why God must judge sin, or how repentance changes the heart. So, instead, they have scattered ideas, as the previous obvious contradiction shows, that rely on repetition (akin to brain-washing) to promote their self-serving movement.

And on this page, the AHA team decrees: 'We must confess our blood guiltiness, repent of our apathy, and let justice roll down like water.' This page, as you can see is blood red and black with white text. And if you look at the dove, that ought be white, but the colors are inverted, making it black. Now, if you look at this dove, you can clearly see a skull that was intentionally designed around the dove silhouette... that's just a little odd, maybe morbid, and freaky - isn't it?

While we're on the topic, let's talk about designs in this booklet. If you go through and study the images and look for symbols and hidden words, you'll find all sorts of oddities tucked in there. None of the secret or hidden words or symbols are accidents. All of them were drawn there. So, when you realize that, you have to stop and ask yourself - why? Throughout this booklet, you've probably noticed the drawings of blood, splotches of blood, waves of blood, and a variety of other encrypted messages and hidden words - like the words hidden in the tree on page 9 (in fancy micro script). Or how about the hidden words at the top of pages 9,10? Or how about the hidden dead dragon that is sliced in two pieces, on the bottom right corner of page 20? Or how about the very concerning images of the last 4 pages? Or how about all of the icons and mythological symbology built into the AHA 'crest' on the back page? Someone on this team is really good at drawing these things. (Most, if not all, of the drawing is done Russell Hunter with probable help from someone else) Drawing is fine and it is a talent from God (though not everyone uses it in a way that pleases God). But, when someone intentionally hides encrypted messages into their artwork, they are telling you one thing clearly - you shouldn't take the surface message alone. There are subtle messages that you need to also study and catch and compare to God's Word to determine if this person/team is telling the truth or not.

Jesus didn't hide, because He didn't have to. He wasn't doing evil, teaching lies, or excusing sin, or distracting people who loved the Word of God. Jesus always takes the highest level of righteousness path. Jesus never tries to get by with the smallest amount of obedience necessary so He never needs to hide what He is doing or what He teaches. He is 100% holy and always has been and always will be. And, when you find a person hiding secrets in their artwork, then you need to remember Jesus' clear warnings to you - about them. "¹⁹ And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. ²¹ But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God." (John 3:19-21)

So, back to this page 26. Considering the various other implications and false accusations we've seen here (and the last few pages), we cannot help but note that this page is a threat of murder of those who oppose this agenda. Page 10 has these words hidden on top: 'You shall be eaten by the sword' - again, on a page in blood red ink and black - this is a threat of murder. Would some lowly AHA founders be the only ones in on that? Not hardly. Based on the Jesuit marks we see on the last page and in the AHA symbol, we believe this AHA founding team is apparently directly or secondarily working with the C.I.A. 'black-projects' or Jesuits to falsely accuse Christians in secret courts, so that someone can murder them. Many believers apparently are not aware of how much the Rockefeller / C.I.A. project called 'Westboro Baptist' was designed to initiate laws that would try to limit free speech, and also was used to turn the public sentiment against honest churches, genuine believers, and gracious caring evangelists. And apparently, many believers are not aware of the 800+ FEMA camps and the many guillotines at military bases in the US that are set to be used to murder Christians, if we don't stand up to it in prayer. (We are not in the 7-year Tribulation yet, we are in the 'church age' in Revelation 2-3.) So, from our research (in a variety of subjects and current events), this AHA team and their booklet are not a low-level-nothing problem... this is a big problem. We just can't figure out how big. But, we have seen many reports that the big-money tycoons of the world are actively murdering Christians worldwide. So, it is nothing for them to try to falsely accuse genuine Christians here in the US of some 'crime' as Nero did before he mass-murdered. (There are many other examples of this too, including the Vatican's inquisitions.) Please be on your guard and stay in the Word. We have a little more left in this study - very clear problems to discuss on the last few pages of the AHA booklet. And, we hope what you have read and what you read below will help you to start analyzing the strange things this AHA founding leadership is doing. And, whether you stick with this AHA founding team or not, please make sure that you are not teaching the lies they are. Make sure you are walking blamelessly, and just teaching the Word of God and gospel of Jesus Christ.

This FEDBP team has personally witnessed the mean harassment of this AHA team, so we encourage you to be careful with your words around them. They are not right, they are not fair, and as you can see in this analysis - comparing their words to God's Word, they are not honest either.

Still on page 26. We also find it interesting that they half-quote Amos 5:24, and then misapply it. Here's what Amos 5 says: "²⁴ But let justice run down like water, And righteousness like a mighty stream." (Amos 5:24) - The context is clearly not blood, like the page coloring suggests, but water-cleansing of the Jewish culture, which refers to genuine repentance. All 3 of the verse references also have to do with genuine heart-change repentance - not blood. ^{1st} John 1:9 talks about this cleansing repentance as well: "⁹ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:9)

Our concern with this page is that this AHA team is really pushing hard (by implication) for vigilante committee/‘justice’. Yes, we are aware of their ‘anti-violence’ explanation, but, if that was the case completely, then why did they use so much graphic blood and clear calls to somehow forcefully stop/end all abortions? Again, there’s a contradiction here that really concerns us. And they emphasize our concerns, by having two quotes at the bottom of this page (26), bottom left: ‘Abortion apathy is sin’, and on the bottom right is this AHA team’s solution: ‘abolitionism is repentance’. And to supposedly prove their case, they have Jonah 3:5-10 right below the dove/skull image.

~ As you and we know, repentance is not joining a cause or a movement, but a change of heart that leads to turning from sin, which leads to a change of life as 2nd Corinthians 5:17 says. “17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.” (2nd Corinthians 5:17)

We encourage you to take just a minute to go read those other three passages that they list here: Jonah 3:5-10; Isaiah 1:16-17; and Psalm 51:1-12. After you read those, you'll see that those are great passages about repentance and what a blameless, purified conscience feels like! But, that is not what AHA's anti-abortion movement and organization is about.

Okay this is another busy page full of skewed facts, some cover-ups, and more implied false accusations and quite a few double-meanings.

Let's first look at quotes that look like they are pushing 'taking law into their own hands'. 1st paragraph, quote: ‘God has already told His people what to do, and Christ will lead us in the battle to abolish human abortion...’ ~ Say what? Why does that wording look eerily like real war, not spiritual warfare?

2nd paragraph, quote: ‘The people who know their God will rise and do exploits...’ ~ They'll what? Again, why does this look eerily like real war, not spiritual war? Those quotes are striking and not an accident. In case you missed it, ‘exploits’ is the word for the bounty that was taken after a foreign army was conquered and killed, or brought to the point of surrender when surrounded by the conquering army.

Those quotes just confirm our concerns that some on this AHA team are secretly promoting a vigilante committee ‘justice’ as a means to ‘end’ abortions.

Also on this page, we see very interesting art. On the top left corner is a dove, sitting on a Bible with a cloud behind it, watching as the tufts of wheat and tares are scattering their seeds. We also see a depiction of Moses with his staff turning into a snake and eating the serpents/dragons of the Egyptian ‘magicians’. But, a Biblical clarification - it was Aaron's rod, not Moses's rod, that gobbled up the serpents, and not just 2 serpents - there were more. But, aside from the confusion that this AHA team has about Scripture, they did draw an AHA shirt on Moses, with the words 'No compromise', as he stares into the face of one of the dragons. And, by the way, that is Toby Harmon's face there drawn as Moses. (Toby is one of the founding members of AHA. Toby is also the one who runs/manages their website, and one of the crew who wrote this booklet) It is odd that Russell drew Toby's face as 'Moses'. We agree. So, why did they portray Toby a 'Moses'? We don't know. But, their depiction is not in keeping with the Scriptures. And 'No Compromise'? This AHA team, again, seems to be borrowing from the Kabbalistic false religion and using Scripture out of context to push and promote their own agenda.

Here this AHA team builds on a previous statement from the previous page - these two pages are a pair (pages 27,28). On Page 27, they start the sentence: 'We are not asking you to "do more"...' And they finish that sentence on page 28: 'What we are saying is far more fundamental than "do more"...' Yeah, we know - drop everything we're doing and join the AHA movement. So, join the AHA movement folks, or you're not following God.... So they say, but they're wrong.

Here's another odd quote, from the 3rd paragraph: 'Then let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds and work out the most effective means to bring an immediate end to abortion in our nation...' ~ That was an odd switch of subjects. From obedience to Christ to preach the gospel and make disciples... to joining their AHA anti-abortion movement... interesting.

They also say in paragraphs 7 and 8 that if you do not join this AHA team's movement/organization, you're in sin. Yes, that's right - paragraph 4: 'We have brought you a message that you cannot sidestep with talk of competing tactics, pragmatism, and "political realities". We are talking about your sin!' ~ Excuse me, AHA team, do you mean the 'sin' mentioned on page 26 of 'abortion apathy'?

So, now you know, friends, that if you do not join this AHA team, they are going to wrongfully say you are:

- persecuting them (page 25),
- that you are in sin (page 26),
- that you don't need to do more (page 27),
- but you need to do something far deeper than 'do more' (page 28).

Yep ~ join their movement, or else. Again, brothers and sisters, this is the bullying tactics of abusers - so why is this AHA team treating people this way? It's wrong. Their message is wrong and how they are treating Scripture is wrong, and how they are treating followers of Christ is wrong.

And they use their pictures to emphasize their message to you as well. Look at the picture on the top right - what do you see? You see the supposed 'Hand of God' pointing to the right, yet the politicians are blindly marching to the left toward a flood down to Egypt. Implication? If you don't join the AHA movement, you're as guilty as the world and moving back to Egypt and their idolatry.

Okay, now look at the bottom right picture - what do you see? You see the supposed 'Hand of God' pointing to the left now, toward Nineveh, and Jonah is running away toward Tarshish and the big fish ready to gobble him up. Implication? If you don't join this AHA movement, you're running away from the will of God and will be forced by God to join one way or another... apparently. It should be noted that God did not force Jonah to do His will, but He did communicate clearly to Jonah, reinstated him and sent him to preach repentance to Nineveh that they might be saved, spiritually and physically. And God's results of Jonah's obedience to preach the gospel and repentance is worth celebrating for all eternity! But, this AHA team is trying to imply, apparently, that one way or another, if you're a genuine believer, they're going to coerce you into their group or call you unsaved. Not nice at all, or shall we say - mean, very mean.

Here we go again. If you didn't catch it on the previous two pages, they repeat it for you. 'We are not saying that you must drop everything else you are doing, nor arguing that abortion is the only evil the church ought to be fighting. What we are saying is that neglecting the justice and mercy for the aborted unborn calls everything else you are doing into question.' ~ There you go, brothers and sisters. They're not saying to drop everything and join the AHA movement... oh, wait a minute, yes they are. This is called double-speak - when the first point is negated and disproved by the second point. They are clearly saying drop everything and join their movement - or else they will be questioning everything else you are doing. By the Word of God? No, but by their own unrighteous standards and un-Biblical definitions.

And just in case we missed this 3rd clear repeat, the pictures they drew in also say the same thing. On the top to top-right, we see a short-form depiction of the story of Gideon (found in Judges 6-8). The guy on top is drawing water to his mouth with his hands and it's implied that he joins Gideon's army to surround the Midianites with the 10 torches hidden under pitchers and then they together capture and kill the Midianites who tried to escaped the armed conflict. And conversely, the guy who is lapping water, instead of joining the battle, he heads home, to sit on his couch, drinking beer, watching TV, with the watchdog asleep at his feet. And, this guy apparently (according to the drawing) likes to listen to and/or sing 'Amazing

Grace' and reads some of Bonhoeffer. Implication? If you don't join the few with God's army and join the fight the AHA team are 'leading', then you're headed home to be a drunk and useless couch-potato in front of his TV (trash vendor). Wow. Remember, God did not send the rest of the troops home to do nothing. He was proving that He was their Deliverer, not the hand of sinful men. God was clearly teaching the Israelis that vengeance is His - He will repay. If we obey in preaching God's Word, He will bring justice on the abusers, and evildoers. He promises that many times in God's Word, including 2nd Corinthians 10:3-5, and Ephesians 6.

We've finally gotten to the last page of their booklet - and it gets even more interesting as this AHA team tries to wrap up their case and pull you in or condemn you for not following their plan and AHA movement. This last page is one word-game after another. If you read it, you'll see that they seek to berate, insult, belittle, or sideline anyone who looks at this booklet and information with Biblical discernment, and to treat them as being part of the same uncaring pagan 'church'. This AHA team only has two categories: you are either with this AHA team and "against the world", or you are "for the world" and against this AHA team. The 'against the world' and 'for the world' are both phrases that you find on their AHA masonic shield, or 'crest'.

But honestly, there is a third category. Often when the world wants to label you in one of two categories, the correct choice is neither of those, and just obeying the Bible. Genuine followers of Christ intentionally study the Word and are growing in Biblical discernment on everything else around them.

The pics here push this AHA team's 'for us/against us' view. On the top of the page, we see a goat standing with a knock-out weapon ready to attack the sheep. The goat is in a suit and tie, while the sheep is in a simple short-sleeved shirt and blue-jeans. The goat has a knock-out weapon in his left hoof and a dagger in his right hoof with a slight smile on his face, while the sheep is just standing there with an odd blank stare, holding a book entitled 'How to move up in the church'. This looks to us like this goat is the standard 'cloak and dagger' style, ready to attack and kill the distracted sheep. Note the 'cloak and dagger' is hinting at Jesuits or similar secretive and dangerous groups. Please also note the baphomet with slightly downturn horns... everything in this booklet was drawn on purpose - there were no accidents, including the hidden symbols and hidden texts.

And on the bottom of this page, we see another interesting drawing of people putting very little money into the offering plate with blingy rings, and weeds overgrowing everything.

On the very first page, they said: "... However, the images are not the most controversial aspect of this pamphlet..." What did they mean by that?

Now that we've looked at the message of this whole booklet, let's now look at the message on the front and back covers.

<<- Front Cover

A sad angry man with a sign that reads 'Does God Hate Our Worship?' with the clear intent to mean - 'Does God hate your worship?' It's a subtle insult/manipulation style, as you've already seen in their booklet. The man with the sign, by the way, is Todd Bullis (one of the founding members of AHA, and one of the crew who wrote this booklet).

The references Isaiah 1, Amos 5, Jeremiah 7, and Matthew 23 are listed in the corners, with the note below of 'International Coalition of Abolitionist Societies'. So, this isn't just national movement. This is an international movement... or at least, they are trying to make it an international movement.

<<- Back Cover

This back cover is interesting only because of occult/Jesuit symbols in the AHA 'crest' or shield. You can see below for yourself at the links below, and you can click on the link below that to see a larger picture of it.

Conclusion:

We hope this helps you to see some serious concerns with the AHA leadership and team. If you choose to stay with them, now you know what to watch out for. We hope that many will move away from movements and just find many more creative and effective ways to work with genuine believers and publicly read the Word of God, share the gospel and teach others to follow Jesus with all of their heart, soul, mind, and strength, and to grow in loving their neighbor as themselves - as Jesus taught.

You can find the AHA leaders on their Facebook pages. If what they wrote concerns you, then please contact them and ask them to change. But, you need to be warned, they are not fair or honest, and are quick to insult/slander anyone who does not agree with them. So you will want to keep the conversations with them in email or text, so you can quote it if you need to. Especially, if this AHA team continues to be as dishonest, vicious, and unfair as we and others have seen them to be. So, here are the leaders and founders of the AHA movement:

Thank you for reading this. Please pray for God to grant us wisdom as we seek to graciously answer their rude comments and messages that we expect to receive for this analysis. We seek to just provide the information as clearly and accurately as we can so the genuine body of Christ can have an honest discussion on it. Thank you for your part in this discussion and for your prayers.
