

John MacArthur – heir of Masons, 5th generation clergy and member of the royal clan of Arthur (heavily masonic)

This team here (FEDBP) owns thousands of dollars of GTY (Grace to You) materials: Bible research software, Books, CDs, and tapes. We listened, followed and supported for over 15 years. We even overlooked many things – until we saw him directly contradict God in the Book of Revelation that people can take the “mark of the beast” and still get saved. That was a turning point for us. We started reading more of what he said to see if he was being honest. We’ve found Mr. MacArthur is far from being honest – he’s just really good at smooth words and flattering to gain advantage and peddling the Word of God for profit (to the tune of over $1,000,000 per year).

The biggest question that we have been seeking the answer to, as well as getting questions about, is about Mr. John F. MacArthur Jr., (whom many just know as “Pastor John MacArthur” of Grace Community Church or Grace To You radio show. And the question is: how much connection or how many connections does Mr. MacArthur have to masonry? That is what this article is working to explore.

If you want to see our 2 previous reports, you can find them here:

MacArthur’s close connections with freemasons – family and associates.

In a 1979 Grace To You Interview, John MacArthur boasted that his ancestors belonged to the great MacArthur Clan of Scotland and that he is a fifth cousin of General Douglas MacArthur:

“RICH: Some of the listening audience have asked about your name. Some think that maybe you’re related to General MacArthur, can you tell us a little about who you’re related to and what about the name?
 “JOHN: Well, of course, MacArthur is a great Scottish name. We have our own clan and our own plaid and all those things. A recent visit to Scotland on my part reaffirmed where my roots come from. But my family came originally from Scotland. I’m a fifth generation preacher. Men in my family go back to ministries in Scotland and Canada, even in Australia. I am distantly related to General Douglas MacArthur. I understand that I am a fifth cousin. So it’s quite a distance, but nonetheless we are related.” [end of interview clip]

On January 17, 1936, General Douglas MacArthur (1880-1954) became a Master Mason of the Scottish Rite. Gen. MacArthur was made a “Mason at sight” in an impressive ceremony at the American Embassy in Japan. “On December 8, 1947, at the American Embassy in Japan, the Thirty-third Degree was conferred on Brother MacArthur by Ill^o Frederick H. Stevens, 33^o, Deputy of The Mother Supreme Council, 33^o, in the Philippines. Brother Stevens had conferred the First Degree on Brother MacArthur in 1936.” (Ararat Shrine Temple)

“Douglas MacArthur became a Freemason while serving as field marshal in the capacity of military advisor to the commonwealth government of the Philippines. He did not join the Craft in the conventional way by petitioning a Lodge for the degrees of Masonry. For that matter, either by design or by fate MacArthur did very few things during his lifetime in the conventional manner.

“For the second time in the history of the Grand Lodge of the Philippines, Most Worshipful Samuel Hawthorne exercised his prerogative to make a ‘Mason at sight’ on January 17, 1936, in the presence of over six hundred Master Masons who watched in breathless silence in a crowded hall, Samuel Hawthorne, Grand Master of Masons in the Philippines made General Douglas MacArthur a Mason at sight. MacArthur was visibly moved throughout the ceremony. The Entered Apprentice Degree was given with P.G.M. Frederick H. Stevens presiding. Immediately following, P.G.M. Francisco A. Delagado conferred the Fellowcraft Degree on MacArthur. When it was concluded, M.W. Samuel Hawthorne raised General MacArthur to the sublime degree of Master Mason.

“It was an impressive ceremony and it included an address by P.G.M. Eugene Stafford who recalled his very close association with MacArthur’s father, General Arthur MacArthur when he commanded the Philippine division and later served as Military Governor of the Philippines in 1900-1901. Concluding the ceremony, some twenty grizzled veterans still possessing the military bearing of a bygone era, and almost all Past Masters, who had served with General Arthur MacArthur, 36 years before, lined up in the East. It was an extraordinary ceremony, the Freemasons of the Philippines welcomed a prominent American General into the Craft as a brother, and also paid homage to his father a Freemason who some of the brethren had fought along side of, and others had undoubtedly fought against a generation before. It was a golden moment for Freemasonry in the Philippines and for Douglas MacArthur who had always wanted to be a Freemason like his father. The ceremony lasted for two hours.

“After being raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, Douglas MacArthur affiliated with Manila Lodge No.1 and on March 13th joined the Scottish Rite. On October 19, 1937, he was elected Knight Commander Court of Honor, and on December 8, 1947, he was coroneted Honorary 33rd Degree at the American Embassy in Tokyo. He became a life member of the Nile Shrine Temple in Seattle, Washington.” (Herbert G. Gardiner, PGS, “Douglas MacArthur, A Freemason for All Seasons”)

John MacArthur's great grandpa was

"John MacArthur: Servant of the Word and Flock by Iain Murray:

“Harry MacArthur, the grandfather of our subject, was working as a chief telegrapher on the Canadian Railways at Calgary, Alberta, when he became a Christian. His wife, Olivia Mary Fullerton, was the daughter of a Thomas Fullerton, who was minister of the Presbyterian Church of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, on the east coast of Canada. 1. Fullerton had come from Scotland where his father had also been a Presbyterian minister. There was thus Scottish ancestry on both sides of the marriage of Harry and Olivia.

“1. Thomas Fullerton was minister of St James Kirk in Charlottetown, 1893-1921, a ministry interrupted while he served in the Canadian army during the Boer War.” (p. 5)

PHIL JOHNSON: “...you’re a fifth-generation pastor. Tell us about your grandfathers and the heritage of all those pastors in your background.

JOHN MACARTHUR: “...my grandmother, had a father who was a pastor in Prince Edward Island on the east coast of Canada.”

What John MacArthur neglected to mention is that during the years that his great grandfather, Thomas Fraser Fullerton, was minister of St James Presbyterian Church in Charlottetown, PEI, he was also Provincial Grand Master; Most Worshipful Brother, Grand Lodge of Prince Edward Island, A.F. & A.M., Grand Master 1913–1914; “In the Grand Lodge he was Grand Chaplain, 1907-10; Senior Grand Deacon, 1911; Deputy Grand Master, 1912 and Grand Master, 1913.” “He presided as Worshipful Master of St. Johns Lodge in 1911. In the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite he received the degrees of the Lodge of Perfection and Rose Croix Chapter in 1903, and the intermediate degrees to 32degree in Charlottetown Consistory in 1911.” (Grand Lodge of PEI, Thomas Fraser Fullerton, PGM)

In 1892, Rev. Thomas Fullerton was also Grand Secretary of the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge for the Province under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of British America. (Canada: An Encyclopedia, p. 318)

Grand Master 1913 – 1914

Thomas Fraser Fullerton was born at Glasgow, Scotland, on March 28th, 1861.

He received his early education at a Public School, matriculating into Glasgow University from which he graduated as Prizeman.

Having fitted himself for a life of theological work he came to America in 1889, and after a short Pastorate in St. John, N. B., he accepted a call to St. James Presbyterian Church, (Kirk) in Charlottetown, P. E. I. This charge he still holds, and has held continually for twenty-one years, with the exception of one year while in active service as Chaplain with the Royal Canadian Regiment in the South African War in 1900.

He received the Degree of Doctor of Divinity from the Presbyterian College at Halifax, N. S. in 1913.

In Masonry he received his first light as an Entered Apprentice in St. Johns Lodge, No. 1, Charlottetown, on March 15th, 1901, as a Fellow Craft, April 16th, and as Master Mason, May 14th, of the same year. He presided as Worshipful Master of St. Johns Lodge in 1911. In the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite he received the degrees of the Lodge of Perfection and Rose Croix Chapter in 1903, and the intermediate degrees to 32 degree in Charlottetown Consistory in 1911.

In the Grand Lodge he was Grand Chaplain, 1907-10; Senior Grand Deacon, 1911; Deputy Grand Master, 1912 and Grand Master, 1913.

33° MASON ROY ROGERS

John MacArthur's father, Rev. Jack MacArthur, was the pastor and close friend of 33rd degree Mason, Roy Rogers, and Dale Evans who was a member of the Eastern Star. Roy Rogers was reportedly converted and baptized by Jack MacArthur.

BAPTIST PRESS

News Service of the Southern Baptist Convention

ROY ROGERS TO TESTIFY ON YOUTH NIGHT PROGRAM

117 Ninth Avenue, North Nashville, Tennessee

NASHVILLE, Tenn.--(BP)--Roy Rogers and his wife, Dale Evans Rogers, have accepted an invitation from G. Kearnie Keegan, secretary of Department of Student Work, Baptist Sunday School Board, to bring their Christian testimony in word and song on the youth night program of the Southern Baptist Convention, Saturday, in San Francisco 1 June 23. Mrs. Rogers, Dale Evans to the millions who listen to their weekly radio program, is a native of Texas. Her parents live in Italy, Texas, and are members of the First Baptist Church, E.J. Kearney, pastor.

Both Roy and Dale are members of the Fountain Avenue Baptist Church in Hollywood. Roy was won to Christ three years ago and baptized by the popular pastor-evangelist, Jack McArthur.

Grave of 33rd Mason Roy Rogers
(Leonard Franklin Slye)

"The Roy Rogers Masonic Connection"

"In The Voice of Calvary Legacy, John MacArthur stated that his father, Jack MacArthur, 'counted Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, who came to Christ under his preaching, as close personal friends.'

"According to an article in the Baptist Press written on May 13, 1951, 'Roy [Rogers] was won to Christ three years ago and baptized by the popular pastor-evangelist, Jack MacArthur.' This would indicate that Roy Rogers became a Christian and was baptized in 1948.

"According to the Henry W. Coil Library & Museum of Freemasonry, in June, 1950, Roy Rogers became a 32nd degree Freemason and became a member of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles Mystic Shrine (Shriner) in that same year. (To be a Shriner, one must be a 32 degree Scottish Rite Mason.) This shows that Roy Rogers became a 32nd degree Freemason and Shriner two years after Jack MacArthur baptized him.

"According to an article written in June, 1952 in Radio-TV Mirror (p.46), Jack MacArthur was a frequent visitor to the then 32nd degree Freemason's home. "A frequent visitor at the house is Dr. Jack MacArthur, the dynamic young pastor of the Fountain Avenue Baptist Church in Hollywood, of which Dale and Roy are active members."

Roy Rogers became a Christian in 1948, at which time he was already a Master Mason. Upon his alleged conversion by Pastor Jack MacArthur, Roy Rogers did not renounce Freemasonry but went on to earn many higher degrees. According to the Library and Museum of Freemasonry, he became a 32nd Mason in 1950, Knight Commander of the Court of Honor in 1975, 33rd Mason in 1979, Holy Royal Arch, Royal & Select Master and Knight Templar in 1983..."

“ ... John MacArthur has never revealed, much less repudiated, his family’s ties to Freemasonry. Instead he praises them, which makes his hypocritical expose of Freemasonry a shining example of how Satan’s ministers are transformed into ministers of righteousness.

“For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.” 2 Cor. 11:13-15

Another less obvious connection to Freemasonry was announced in 1996 when the Mayor and City Council of Los Angeles signed a resolution congratulating John MacArthur on his ministry “which has advanced the causes of Jesus Christ worldwide. ...and [the Council] wishes him continued fruitfulness in all of his future endeavors for the glory of God.” The Mayor of Los Angeles at the time was Richard J. Riordan, who was a Knight of Malta. The Knights of Malta, in concert with the Prieuré de Sion , are leaders of global politics, finance, religion and intelligence. (See: L.A. Council Resolution Praises MacArthur)

FREEMASONRY = GNOSTICISM = PAGANISM

More incriminating evidence is a quotation by John MacArthur found in the Masonic publication of the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of Canada. A recent issue of a quarterly letter to District Deputy Grand Masters quotes John MacArthur’s advice to aspiring church leaders as applicable for developing leaders of the Masons lodge:

“Leaders are also ordinary people, with all the struggles, all the strengths, and all the weaknesses of people like us. ‘It’s not what you are that’s important, the issue is what you are willing to become’ (John MacArthur Jr. President Master’s Seminary).

“In any organization, including Masons, they need leadership. Someone to direct the administration that makes the organization a living, vital team and, particularly, to ensure that there is some growth, and that standards of enthusiasm, action and competence are maintained at a high level.” (Grand Lodge of Canada, March 2014)

> <http://www.niagaramasons.com/Communiques/2014-03%20DDGM%20Communique.pdf>

> <http://www.incpu.org/John-MacArthur-quote.pdf>

John MacArthur seems to require no introduction in this widely distributed Communiqué to the Masonic leadership in Canada. He is a familiar personage to them, not only because his distinguished great grandfather was Provincial Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada, but because he himself promotes the principles of Freemasonry. It is doubtful the Grand Lodge of Canada would quote an Evangelical minister who is not a fellow Mason.

John MacArthur’s statement in the Grand Lodge Communiqué expresses the philosophy of Freemasonry as stated by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada.

“It’s not what you are that’s important, the issue is what you are willing to become.’ (John MacArthur Jr.)

“On July 16th, 2014 the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald A. Campbell commenced his address by welcoming everyone to the 159th Annual Communication of Grand Lodge in Toronto. He made special mention of the Leaders from other Grand Jurisdictions and the Masonic Family.

“He went on to suggest to the Masons present that... ‘I am convinced the world today needs Freemasonry, its philosophy and its fundamental principles of brotherly love, relief and truth,’ Moreover he suggested that ‘It’s not what you are that’s important, the issue is what you are willing to become.’” (Highlights of the Grand Master's 2014 Address)

> <http://www.grandlodge.on.ca/home/our-organization/grand-masters-message.html>

This Masonic axiom was similarly expressed by the author of Don Quixote:

“Love not what you are, but what you may become.” (Don Quixote de la Mancha)

Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra (1547-1616) was a Spanish novelist, poet, playwright, and a Jewish Marrano educated by the Jesuits. Cervantes is frequently quoted in Masonic literature and Masonic Lodges have been named after him. 3.

Notice that the motto of the Grand Lodge of Prince Edward Island is “Making Good Men Better.”

> <https://peifreemasonry.com/>

Freemasonry rejects the doctrine of salvation by faith in Jesus Christ alone and preaches instead how to become better men by receiving the “light” (enlightenment), which is progressively imparted through degrees of initiation...”

In conclusion:

These articles show that Mr. John MacArthur has a lot of direct intentional associations with freemasons, even with “ministry” extensions. This is very concerning. You can go and read all of the articles we shared here – we encourage you to do so and double check with the sources. And if/when you find them true, we hope you’ll share this information (if not report) with others so they too can know. Over the years, there have been many people who have been raising points that MacArthur needs to address and correct, but he continues to refuse to – that’s no accident. Now, it's catching up to him and his bulldog-defender, Phil Johnsons. The info has only come to our attention in the last few years. ~ So, we hope that the facts that shared help, as we all need to honestly look at and discuss the information and glaring errors.
