

Freemasonry and the Bible

Do they have the same message?

Who is Jesus really?

Is masonry satanic?

>> Freemasonry is a subject that many have heard of but many don't know what it is. Even many who are members of Freemasonry, also called masonry, are not given enough of the facts for them to see the bigger picture or understand/see what Masonry is. Masonry, to most people, appears to be a network of business men who gather typically once a week or so. (Masonry also has separate groups for ladies: eastern star, rainbow girls, etc.) Masons can follow any religion they want to - Catholicism, Christianity, Islam, Judaism, etc. So, what's the common denominator of its members? Their unity is said to be in their being a 'family' in masonry - a 'band of brothers', so to speak. Sadly, that's where many stop paying attention, as though ignoring the bad parts make the bad disappear. They just try to focus on the good business deals and the network of friends. But, I think we need to look deeper, because the core of masonry is very dark and casts a dark shadow over the soul of everyone in masonry. Many don't realize that not only are we created to live for eternity, but there are only 2 places in eternity - Heaven and Hell. On this short card, I want to answer questions referenced here from the Holy Scriptures on the other side.

Even though many masons see the Bible in their ceremonies, God's Word is a mystery to many masons, so let's look at what the Bible says more deeply.

>> Every member who joins the Masonic lodge (and masonry itself) has to be brought in by a friend who's a mason. The very first oath leads the new recruit through various steps, including pledged secrecy of it's oath, etc. During those first steps, they tell the new recruit that he is coming out of 'darkness' into 'light'. Freemasonry says that it's not a religion, but study it out and you'll see that it is a religion. It doesn't worship the God and Creator of the Bible, but includes all 'gods' and ultimately worships Lucifer. From the first oath, each mason is taught about the supposed 'good character' of Lucifer - the 'angel of light'. The Bible explains that Lucifer was once honorable, but, that he chose to rebel against from God and fell about 6,000 years ago to pride and rebellion. Remember Lucifer (now called satan = enemy) once boasted against his Creator: "I will ascend into Heaven, I will exalt my throne above the angels of God; I will also sit on the God's Holy Mountain, on the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High God." (Isaiah 14:13-14)

Yet, God said to Lucifer then: "Yet you shall be brought down to Hell, to the lowest depths of the Pit." (Isaiah 14:15) Jesus said of Lucifer: "He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him... for he is a liar and the father of it." (John 8:44)

Satan invented lying and murder. And he is so rebellious that no truth is in him. He is certainly not trustworthy, nor is fallen Lucifer deserving of any worship. Once a mason member has climbed either the York or Scottish rite 'ladder', he finds out at the top of masonry, that the false god of masonry is a 3-headed monster called 'Jah-Bel-On', a supposed mix of Yahweh, Baal and an Egyptian 'god' name Osiris. God rejects worship that combines Him with the devil, because they are opposites. Masons are worshipping satan/lucifer, even if they don't realize it.

Freemasonry is a copy of Satanism & uses religious symbols for occultic meanings, even in their rituals. >> Here's my concern for you reading this - followers of Jesus know that Jesus is the Way, Truth and Life (John 14:6).

If that person joins masonry, from the first 'oath' to Lucifer, they need to understand that masonry is calling Jesus: 'darkness' and calling satan: 'light'. (There's much more, but that's key). Jesus not only claimed to be God in human flesh, but He also proved it many ways - miracles, healings, resurrections, etc. Here's what Jesus said of Himself: "I Am the Light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the Light of Life." (John 8:12) Jesus also said of fallen Lucifer: "The thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy. I [Jesus] have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. I Am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd gives His life for the sheep." (John 10:10-11)

Jesus, your Creator can be trusted. Satan, the father of lies - cannot be trusted. While you're still breathing, turn from rebelling against God and doing things your way. And plead with God to forgive you, change your heart and teach you to be a follower of Jesus that you may have life! Start by finding the real Jesus in Matthew, Mark, Luke & John.
