

I know this one is specific, but it can be remade fairly easily ~ SH :)

Quick survey:

- Q1: Who are you cheering for?
- Q2: Who do you think will win, and by how much?
- A: the advertisers and beer manufacturers
- Q3: Is it possible that God is displeased with the pride, drinking and sinful partying - celebrating football?
- Last one: Q4: Do you love football more than you love God?

De-briefing:

Are you tired of living with a guilty conscience? Stop doing things you know are wrong and get brilliant light by reading the gospel of John, Matthew, Mark and Luke, and learn to obey what you read - that is the description of repentance. Remember, our mistakes don't keep us out of Heaven - but knowingly doing things we know are wrong and trying to rationalize sin will keep many people out of Heaven. The good news? 'But God proved and demonstrated His love toward us in that while we were doing things we knew were wrong, Christ died in our place.' (Romans 5:8) So, how can people get their life right with God? 'If anyone is willing to follow Me, he needs to walk away from sinful pleasures, ambitions, and entertainment, and desires for earthly things, and start living like Christ and His disciples.' (Luke 9:23) - Any questions? Contact us @ www.incpu.org

Quick survey:

Q1: Who are you cheering for?

Q2: Who do you think will win, and by how much?

A: the advertisers and beer manufacturers

Q3: Is it possible that God is displeased with the pride, drinking and sinful partying - celebrating football?

Last one: Q4: Do you love football more than you love God?

De-briefing:

Are you tired of living with a guilty conscience? Stop doing things you know are wrong and get brilliant light by reading the gospel of John, Matthew, Mark and Luke, and learn to obey what you read - that is the description of repentance. Remember, our mistakes don't keep us out of Heaven - but knowingly doing things we know are wrong and trying to rationalize sin will keep many people out of Heaven. The good news? 'But God proved and demonstrated His love toward us in that while we were doing things we knew were wrong, Christ died in our place.' (Romans 5:8) So, how can people get their life right with God? 'If anyone is willing to follow Me, he needs to walk away from sinful pleasures, ambitions, and entertainment, and desires for earthly things, and start living like Christ and His disciples.' (Luke 9:23) - Any questions? Contact us @ www.incpu.org