

That is my question to you - Who is He? Yes: Who is Jesus? Yes, I'm aware of what the crowds say, & I know what the world says - but that's not my question. Who is Jesus? Freemasonry reduces Him to being just a good man and 'enlightened Teacher'. Islam limits Him to being a righteous man and an important prophet who is less important than Mohammad. In many religions around the world, Jesus is known as the Great Healer - One who could do miracles, amazing the crowds. Still others note that He's a great Theologian who could skillfully, clearly, and accurately teach people things about God that they had never heard before. Still others know Him to be a man who genuinely cared for people, the Good Shepherd, who fed them and took care of their needs. Yet others scoff at and mock at Him as just a man, rejected by God (Isaiah 53). Still today, many people make a version of Jesus that's more like Santa Claus. But the real Jesus won't overlook sin or 'grade on a curve'. The real Jesus isn't anything like what the world portrays Him to be. So, Who is He? >>> Jesus said: "I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no one comes to the Father, but by and through Me." (Jn.14:6) That is a bold statement. He is not lying, He is not crazy - He is the Great I AM. Jesus is the Messiah - the One who was prophesied to come in Genesis 3. He is the Deliver that Moses spoke of to the children of Israel in the wilderness (Deut.18:15). Jesus is the suffering Messiah whom Daniel and Isaiah spoke of (Dan.9:26; Is.53). He is the sacrificial Lamb of God who takes away the sins of all who believe on and commit to follow Him (Jn.1:12-13,29). He is the risen One who crushed Satan's head (Gen.3:15), conquered sin and death (Ro.8:1-2), and sits at the right hand of the Father (Eph.1:20-21). His Name is King of Kings and Lord of Lords (1Tim.6:14-15). He is 100% God (Jn1:14) and He is the always-existed Creator of all things, and He holds it all together (Col. 1:16). And because He created all things, He will also one day judge us all by our deeds (2Cor.5:10; Rev.20:12-15). Many people have offered God a partial repentance, but will hear Him say those dreadful words: "I never knew you: depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!" (Mt.7:21-23) Will you be one of them? I hope & pray you won't be. Mistakes won't keep anyone out of Heaven, but unwillingness to repent & turn from intentional sins will keep many out of Heaven. While you still have time, confess your rebellion to Jesus, ask His forgiveness, & make a covenant with Him. Give Him your whole life to grow and serve and follow Him. The next important step: spend quality time in God's Word yourself - ESV is easy to read. Find the real Jesus. Study Matthew, Mark, Luke & John for yourself, asking Him to teach you, and He will. Then obey what you read. ~ If you'd like to know more, search 'Snapshots of a Disciple' on Facebook.
