

Are you a proud slave? Or are you a servant of Christ opposing evil?

<https://www.INCPU.org/4th-July-2020-message.htm>
<https://www.INCPU.org/4th-July-2020-message.pdf>

The devil wants us to celebrate pride in a nation. Remember, “nationalism” (pride in a country, or how it is portrayed) is one of the easy ways that the Vatican and NWO using their Jesuit-allies like Hitler, conquered Germany and much of Europe, with all of their Catholic peoples and leaders helping it go that way, so they could use the cover of war or “safety”, or in today’s word “health” as a cloak and cover for their murders and crimes.

What does God have to say about that?

“But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: “God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble.”” (James 4:6)

“Jesus answered them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin.” (John 8:34)

“Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one’s slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?” (Romans 6:16)

“I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you previously once presented your members as slaves of uncleanness/unrighteousness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.” (Romans 6:19)

How did German Christians lose?

If you look back on history, the German people were at one time used instrumentally to get the Bible out of the Vatican’s iron-grip and into the hands of the people, through the Waldensians and other honorable families who kept guard of the “Textus Receptus” or “Majority Text” – the most literal and honest manuscripts and fragments of manuscripts that were used very well at the time of Gutenberg’s printing press of AD 1455. The people before and after Luther were also instrumental in helping Europe finally break free (at least somewhat) from the grip of Rome. That is why satan stormed them so hard for the next centuries, until in 1914-1918 (WW1), the Vatican did a purge/inquisition trying to murder all opposition to Rome, her crimes and her next agendas, and continued that purge/inquisition into part two – WW2. You can find that documented in books like “The Vatican’s Holocaust” (Avro Manhattan) and other published history books, including some still published by Chick Publications, especially the Alberto and Jesuit series.

How did so many Christians get murdered in WW1 and WW2? How did they lose their protection from God? Those are always complex questions, with very good answers, but the answers are as complex as the questions. When humans stand up to evil, but then stop being vigilant against evil, evil finds another way to attack. In Germany, that came in the form of a proud leader with the secret help of the Vatican and Jesuits, using the public pride of Germans and their lazy and drunkard way of life. Also, because the common peasants in Germany listened to the false shepherds who were “state-approved”, they were deceived into walking right onto the boxcars. So, pride and listening to false teachers is a deadly combination. There are more complexities to it, but those are 2 key ones that I wanted to draw out and remind us all of as we move to the topic of America in present day.

How was America started?

In the late 1500s into the 1600s, those who opposed the evil agendas and sins of the Vatican and Britain’s royalty fled to America, and were often-times used as debtors slaves, doing the grunt work to open a new land to the power-hungry rulers in Europe. As population hubs and trade-routes became effective and survived the hard winters, more and more Europeans came over, and of course bringing their African and white slaves. The “colonies” grew over time, until the British royalty realized they could make tax money off of the settlers in the new land, and so they did. This led to the King George commanding settlers to stay in their King-approved regions (1763), forced housing of British soldiers (1765), and then came the taxes: The “Sugar Tax” (1765), The “Stamp Tax” (1765), and then the “Townsend Tax” on tea and goods (1767). The freemasons (and seemingly some Jesuit leaders) led the peoples to protest the Townsend tax in 1773. The leaders worked with the people to write a list of grievances for King George to correct. These 27 grievances were attached with the United States Declaration of Independence. The grievances ranged from complaints that the King wouldn’t let their governors make decisions, to frustrated that he kept dissolving their House of Representatives, to blocking all of their peace-able attempts to form their own people-run government, etc.

So, as King George was working to get his House of Lords to give him fully support to put down long-distant unrest against his harsh and abusive leadership (1775), the Freemasons and the Jesuit leaders in America were working with the citizens in America to form the Declaration of Independence (1776) and eventually the US Constitution.

So, how is the US different than other countries?

Thanks to God’s working through honest followers of Christ, even though the masons and Jesuits determined to give themselves loopholes to become a repeat of the British tyranny, God heard (and still does hear) the cries of honest followers of Christ against satan’s plans to conquer the world, before the Tribulation, and gives them wisdom in how to reply, and hold God’s judgment against evildoers in prayer. So, although many of our “founding fathers” were “deists” and masons (virtually the same thing), the Lord hears all Americans who seek Him, because God shows in Scripture that it’s His will to use those who love righteousness and hate evil, to hold back satan’s schemes until the proper time. In Biblical chronology and Biblical definitions, Revelation explains this chronology quite plainly. Jesus ascending to Heaven launched the first of the 7 stages of the “church age” – Ephesus (AD 30s to AD 105), Smyrna (AD 64-AD 312), Pergamum (AD 312-AD 800), Thyatira (AD 800 to AD 1100), Sardis (AD 1100 to AD 1400), Philadelphia (AD 1400 to the “rapture”), Laodicea (AD 1750 into the Tribulation).

Where are we right now? Well, we are in the last decades of the “Laodicean church age”, explained by numerous things in the New Testament, including Jesus’ words in the gospels and Revelation. What people forget is God, the creator of us and language, knows how to communicate multiples of things in short form, as long as it matches all of God’s Word and is kept in context. The letters to the 7 churches was for 3 different things: 1) literal churches in Asia Minor (now called Turkey), 2) types of churches found throughout the world since Jesus ascended from the Mount of Olives, and 3) a literal progression of the whole “church age” that fits the Bible and honest history.

So, those who know Jesus are looking for a coming “rapture” (1 Thess 4, 2 Thess 2:7, Revelation 3:10), and then the world’s satanic leadership can have quick meetings, pull out the man who is/will be the antichrist, set him up on top, sign a one-world treaty, then the antichrist will sign a 7-year treaty with Israel that then starts the literal 7-year Tribulation.

So, where does the US fit in prophecy?

From all that we can tell, it doesn't. The best that we can find any mention of America in the Bible, would be the open door for Christians to flourish during the "Philadelphian church age" period. As we've taught before, while we are on this earth, we are to be doing the work of the Lord, which right now includes preaching against sin, calling for repentance, training in righteousness, opposing abusers and resisting satan's schemes until the "rapture". God wants His servants to be faithful in doing what is right and resisting evil and protecting the vulnerable till He returns, amen?

Quick review of the US Constitution and why we need to hold it till God calls us home

The quick history is that on July 2nd, the "Lee Resolution" for independence was approved with no opposing votes. July 4th is the remembrance of that.

The US Constitution was a founding document of our republic that took a bit more time. It was in draft form starting September 5 1774 and was worked on through 1781, though some states refused to fully ratify it even as late as 1790. What the US Constitution is for the people of the US is a covenant between God and the citizens of what we call the "United States of America" against evil, until He returns. In Revelation 3, Jesus said this to the church, church type and church age of Philadelphia:

"7 To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. 8 I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. 9 I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews though they are not, but are liars—I will make them come and fall down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you. 10 Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come on the whole world to test the inhabitants of the earth. 11 I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. 12 The one who is victorious I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will they leave it. I will write on them the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on them my new name. 13 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (Revelation 3:7-13)

That open door, in the history timeline of the 7 churches making up the "church age", started in the 1400s.

Do you know what a covenant is? We covered that somewhat in a previous Bible study on the gospel. Let's take a look.

"... Another key we see in Jesus Parable of the Soils (which you can find in Matthew 13, Mark 4, and Luke 8), is the real connection between a genuine covenant relationship with Christ and growing to obey Him. You'll see two key words in conversations on Biblical doctrine – they are 'salvation' and 'sanctification'. And as you study the teachings of Jesus and His apostles and the early church, genuine salvation means that sanctification (spiritual growth) is going to be starting as instantly as they are genuinely saved. Another way to put this is that repentance has a starting point and carries through the rest of life here on earth. And when we, who are genuinely saved, are not growing regularly in understanding and letting go of more sin, and we start fighting for our sin, then He will chasten us and allow things in our lives that teach us by pain to not be determined to claim our right to do what we selfishly want to do. And, that process keeps us growing closer to Him by baby steps. And it's fed by spending quality time in the Word of God and moving away from anything or anyone that is dragging us back to the lifestyles and sins Jesus died to save us from.

Remember 2nd Corinthians 5? "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." (2nd Corinthians 5:17) –That's talking about a change of heart that starts in the inside and continues. Another passage I noted above that talks about this: "These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God." (1st John 5:13) -- In the Greek, this is more clear: the word 'believe' requires us to obey what we believe. We are acting out what we believe God is like. And if we believe God is 100% holy and will not change, as we grow in our understanding of Him and His beautiful holy character, it will lead to a growth in obedience as well. God's Word is written so that we will continue to believe and continue to grow. Here's another passage that spells it out more clearly – in command form. "But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins." (2nd Peter 1:5-9) --Notice the command to add to. There's a progression here. Many sadly stop growing thinking they don't need to do anymore and they will be grieving when they stand before Christ. We are to intentionally grow in understanding and consistently asking God to help us understand Him, how to please Him more, and how to get rid of anything that is stopping us, as well as how to reach those around us with His Word. 1st John also talks about stages of growth. "I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake. I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one." (1st John 2:12-14) – Did you see it? There are 3 stages of spiritual growth – little children in the faith, young men (and women) in the faith, and fathers (and mothers) in the faith. Question for self-analysis: are you growing? Need to restart? Ask God to help you and He will!

O) Spiritual growth becomes the lifestyle of a genuine believer.

>> What is a covenant and how does that define the gospel?

This is an essential of the gospel. And yet, it's one that most people lack, because it's not being taught in most places across the US.

What is a covenant? The Hebrew word is "ath-brith-i" and the Greek word is "diath-EkEs" and both words mean cutting a covenant/agreement between two people for life. Marriage is an easy example - most people realize that "For better, for worse, till death do us part" is a lifelong covenant. What many don't do is study out passages like 1st Corinthians 13 or Ephesians 5 or similar passage to fill in and grow in what it means to be a husband or wife for life. 1st Timothy 3 and Titus 1 are essentials for studying that out too.

But, did you realize that salvation is an eternal covenant between you and Christ? Most don't. Let's look at it. "²⁸ For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins." (Matthew 26:28) See that word? It's repeated again by God through Paul in 1st Corinthians 11: "²⁵ In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.' ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes." (1st Corinthians 11:25-26) It's again talked about in Hebrews, in chapters 8,9,12.

If you understand that salvation is a covenant and that you are personally making a covenant with Christ, then it helps everything else make sense: counting the cost (Luke 14:25-33), becoming dead to sin and alive to Christ (Romans 6 and 8), making sure we don't quench the Holy Spirit with sin (1st Thessalonians 5:19; Romans 12:9; James 4:1-4; 1st John 2:15-17; 1st John 5:21), and becoming slaves (bondslaves) of Christ (1st Corinthians 7:23; Galatians 1:8-10).

You already kind of know this because most people understand that when they get saved they are now making Jesus their Lord and Savior, but you probably never realized what all it included, because it's not being taught like Jesus and His apostles taught it. This is what you were pledging and identifying with when you got baptized - dead to sin, alive to Christ.

P) Salvation is a covenant between you and Christ.

>>  you can find a free Hebrew/Greek study too that's been my favorite for since 2009 at: www.Scripture4all.org. Or in print form, Jay P. Green Sr's Hebrew/Greek Interlinear is the most accurate interlinear in book-format that I have found so far. you can find it in almost any bookstore or online. Two lower-priced sites you can search:

>> www.alibris.com

>> www.half.com

...”

You can read more of that study, here:

“What is the Gospel? (Updated)” http://www.incpu.org/what-is-the-gospel\(updated\).htm.htm)

In the context of a nation, God has kept America open for us to help others... unfortunately, the previous two generations have not held their leaders accountable, and now we have the chaos of abusers in almost every position of prominence. We need to work with those who fear God to arrest and prosecute all predators and abusers in positions of authority.

So, what do we do now? Let’s learn and grow in becoming what Jesus called – salt and light. Yes, I know the masons, Jesuits and occultists really confuse that, but let’s put it back in a Biblical context. God wants us to be His Biblical boundary stones.

"4 Coming to Him as to a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, 5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." (1st Peter 2:4-5)

"17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. 18 Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not [a]imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20 Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ’s behalf, be reconciled to God." (2nd Corinthians 5:17-20)

Are you God's boundary stones? To some people that would be a completely foreign question because they've never heard their 501c3 CEO ahem "pastor" teach it. And yet, we find it in the clear text of God's Word - just passages the wolves never teach... yes if your pastor is not teaching this, he's a wolf.

Study the words "boundary stones" and you will find that God hates the actions of those who move the "boundary markers" or "boundary stones" and steal land or other possessions from others. He also rebukes the spiritual leaders of doing this when they refuse to teach holiness standards that help the righteous resist the devil and his fallen angel team and gullible evil-foolish human helpers.

Look it up for yourself: Deuteronomy 19:14; Job 24:2; Proverbs 22:28; Proverbs 23:10; Hosea 5:10, etc. But that brings me back to the original question - if God intends for you to be "salt" and "light" in this rebellious world, meaning living holy and resisting evil... are you trying to that? Or are you letting the world's sin-filled entertainment make you look like the world, and enemy of God. In this world (and eternity) you are going to have to pick a side. God is calling you, satan is trying to trick you... what's your choice - today? Will you grow in being a holy boundary stone for God today? An ambassador who calls people to turn from evil and make an eternal covenant with Jesus? Do so. Then study God's Word and ask Him to lead you one step at a time ~ and He will.

So join me/us in letting God stretch your faith in Him, and press you to become a God-fearing man or woman who actively resists evil, exposes evil, and protects the victims from the satanic predators. Call out lies, and quote Scripture. Call out wolves and quote Scripture. Throw out your trash vendor (TV) and your sin-filled entertainment and call others to do the same. Call people to make their covenant with Christ sure, because there is a huge difference between “almost saved” and genuinely saved, sealed by the Holy Spirit of Promise.

Let’s review a few more verses and then pray. As you read these passages, remember, that God wants us to be a shelter to the abused, a prosecutor to the abuser, but also to take the gospel with each in each step. Because without the gospel, an act of good will is useless, when viewed from eternity. If you can’t figure out how to speak – then pray God sends someone else to speak to them. But let’s each also learn ourselves how to share the gospel with everyone we can. Amen? Good. Let’s read.

“Then I returned and considered all the oppression that is done under the sun: And look! The tears of the oppressed, But they have no comforter— On the side of their oppressors there is power, But they have no comforter.” (Ecclesiastes 4:1)

“And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, and against those who turn away an alien— Because they do not fear Me,” Says the Lord of hosts.” (Malachi 3:5)

“21 Therefore lay aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; 24 for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25 But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does. 26 If anyone among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one’s religion is useless. 27 Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.” (James 1:21-27)

Let’s pray.

*Heavenly Father, thank You for this country, where we have an open door to get the gospel out to those around us, and the world. Help us all to learn to fight, resist, and expose the lies of satan’s NWO and the Vatican/Catholic Cult. The world looks very dark right now. But I know You have been exposing the evil deeds that were previously done in darkness, but no one knew about them. Father, You say in Your Word that we are to wrestle with satan’s schemes and demonic agents. We want to, but by and large, across the US – we don’t know how to. We know Father that the Vatican agents have taken over many things... even many government positions and judicial positions. But that’s still not too big for You. Please, use us. You want us to be Your ambassadors, and You restraining agents against satan’s schemes and plots. Move our feet. Move us where You want to use us to hold back and fight against satan’s schemes. Use us to intercede for those who have no one else to pray for them. Use us to tear down false teachers, or at least that honorable fascades. Use us to arrest and prosecute predators and abusers in positions of authority. Use us to call out and resist each of the NWO schemes – digital currency, digital ID, forced vaccines, forced indoctrination of our children. Help us to reject and prosecute the s*xually perverse so that we might protect the children. There are so many things here to request Father. You know our hearts. We belong to You, and we give our lives to You. Uses us to help others, and teach every single one we can reach to turn from sin turn to Jesus Christ, because we know helping yet no gospel is useless. Train our willing tongues to speak for You, reaching into the lives and hearts of those around us, calling them to let go of sin, and flee to Jesus, forming a genuine covenant with Him. We don’t know how all You will answer these prayers, but we know You will. So, with expectant faith, we pray these things in Jesus’ Name. We love You, and Thank You, and praise You, Amen.*